

GREAT THROBING TO ROAR OUT WILD WELCOME AS TRIUMPHANT IDOL OF GOLFDOM RETURNS

Cooler Weather Is Promised Parched City Today

SUNDAY MERCURY
HITS 101 DEGREES
THEN DIVES TO 78

Violent Thunderstorms Strike in Many Parts of Georgia as Heat Wave Is Broken.

TWO PROSTRATIONS
PUSH TOTAL TO FIVE

Heat Sufferers Soon Recovered After Collapse;
Sunstroke Victim
Identified as L. W. Cook.

The wind blew, the lightning flashed and the rain poured—enough to break, temporarily, a record heat wave which has held Atlanta fast in its grip for more than a week. The weather man Sunday night, after a torrid day featured by a high mercury reading of 101 degrees, promised more showers and cooler weather today for the return to Atlanta's first citizen, Mr. Robert Tyre Jones, Jr.

While the high mercury reading of Saturday—103 degrees—established an all-time record for Atlanta, the prophetic Sunday night of relief from a blistering, withering sun that has scorched humans and animals alike was perhaps the most welcome prediction to come from the government's weather bureau in the 61 years of its existence here.

The toll of heat prostrations, however, for the two days amounted to five today when Lonnie Stone, 40, custodian at the police station, collapsed shortly before noon while on duty, and O. Sturdivant, Jr., 16-year-old son of the detective lieutenant of the same name, fell on the front porch of the turn-of-home, 1026 Rosewood drive, while reading the paper Sunday morning.

Heat Victim Identified.

Friends whose names were not learned identified the man picked up yesterday afternoon at Forsyth and Whitehall, after collapsing from the heat, as L. W. Cook, said to have relatives in South Carolina. Cook died several hours after he was rushed to a hospital.

While Atlanta's thunderstorm late Sunday was mild and of short duration, more violent disturbances struck on widely separated sections of Georgia. Available reports indicated no damage which might have offset the benefits resulting from ending a drought which seriously menaced crops.

Wire service from Atlanta to two dozen points over the state was, at least, intermittently through the early night, but when service was resumed the report at the affected point was that there was a brilliant lightning display, wind squalls without serious damage and a beneficial rain.

Peak Reached at 4 P. M.

Sunday's highest reported temperature in Atlanta was 101, registered at 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon, the day starting off at 6 o'clock with an 80 and climbing slowly. A blazing sun lay down steadily on the city—and the country, too—until late in the afternoon, when the clouds began a game of hide and seek to the accompaniment of ominous roars in the sky. Saturday's high was 103, registered at 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon, which compared with 102.2 the previous high reading established on September 25, 1925.

Battle Against Heat.

While the heat wave remained the principal topic of conversation—with due deference to the importance of Bobby Jones home-coming today—many Atlantans found it more comfortable in the city surrounded by artificial devices for combating the heat than they did getting out next

Continued on Page 4, Column 7.

Four Drown, 95 Saved
In Day Near Gotham

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—Another dead summer day attracted hundreds of thousands to the beaches of the metropolitan area today with any resultant accidents. Four persons drowned and lifeguards reported at 95 others were saved from drowning at Long Beach.

Many rescues also were made by lifeguards at Coney Island and Rockaway Beach.

One death from heat was reported at Coney Island, where the throng of seashore-seekers was estimated at about 900,000.

Clairvoyant Hears Fate of Treaty MAY BE SETTLED DURING THIS WEEK

Sir A. Conan Doyle

RICHMOND GIRL RETURNS TO HOME

"Abductor" of Miss McCleny Makes Bail on Charges.

RICHMOND, Va., July 13.—(AP)—Mary Frances McCleny, prominent 20-year-old Richmond girl, missing since July 1, was at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. McCleny today after returning last night with her companion, Harry Dickinson, who the girl's father had arrested on the charge of "abducting" his daughter without her parents' knowledge or consent.

The two weeks they spent together in a Waynesboro, Va., rooming house apartment came to an abrupt end late yesterday when they were discovered and returned to Richmond—the girl to her parents, and Dickinson, a filling station operator, to jail.

After surrendering himself to authorities on his return Dickinson was bailed from Henrico county jail today in the sum of $1,000 to appear for police court hearing July 15, with N. H. Dickinson and Johnnie Leadbetter, his garage associates arrested on charges of being "accessories" in the disappearance of the girl.

Miss McCleny in a signed statement given to a Richmond newspaper, absolved Dickinson of all blame, and said she went with him willingly, and with full knowledge "that he was married, and not divorced."

She said they hitch-hiked to Waynesboro and on July 2 rented a room, kitchenette and bath apartment, where they have been staying while officers and private detectives were combing the state, and following clues leading to distant cities.

Mrs. R. L. Sadlin, in Waynesboro today, said the couple came to her rooming house and rented the apartment for two weeks, paying in advance. They said their names were Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Jones of Lynchburg, giving her the impression that they were bride and groom, Mrs. Spradlin said, the man saying he was looking for filling station work.

Miss McCleny and Dickinson, drove here in an automobile with Joseph Nunnally, lawyer and a newspaper reporter, Dickinson doing the driving.

Dickinson immediately surrendered himself to police who awaited him with a warrant sworn out on information given by Dr. McCleny.

The girl said she had prepared for her departure, buying clothes several days before she left, and hiding them in the seat of her automobile. She said she was with her father, telling him she had left home and not to look for her and pinned it on the seat of her automobile that she left parked on a city street, not far from her home.

She parked the car, she said, boarded a street car and met Dickinson downtown. They went to a railway station, and were given a ride in an automobile to Ashland. Here they left their first ride and later caught another that took them to Waynesboro.

Their discovery was preceded yesterday by information given police by Miss Margaret Leonard, a Richmond acquaintance who said she saw the missing pair on the street in Waynesboro, on the night of July 2. Miss Leonard was visiting near Waynesboro at the time.

Police, private detectives, and attorneys tonight were holding a series of conferences regarding further steps they plan to take in the case.

Dickinson's wife and child are now living near Russellville, Tenn. His father said she came there some time ago, from Richmond, and was making her home with her parents.

Youth Hurt by Dive Is Dead of Injuries

Paralysis caused by a spinal injury received Friday when he dived into a river near Tallapoosa, Sunday proved fatal for 15-year-old Elton Allen, of 728 Ninth avenue, west, Birmingham, Ala., who died in a private hospital here.

The youth who was hurt while swimming with a crew of Sunday school picnicers, was brought to the hospital here Saturday by his father, J. W. Allen. The body was sent to Tallapoosa Sunday for interment.

Admiral Robertson Dies at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 13.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Ashley Herman Robertson, a notable figure of America's sea forces, died at the naval hospital today after a brief illness.

Opponents Will Fight for Delay of Vote With View To Putting Decision Off Until Fall.

BY HERBERT LITTLE,
United News Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—This week may decide the fate of the London naval treaty in the senate, and also whether the senate is to continue its spectacular show for several weeks with intermissions caused by absence of part of the cast, or to act quickly and depart.

In the open, the first week has brought a bitter exchange of views and clashes of personalities which compared favorably with the historic Versailles treaty fight. The sort, dynamic Hiram Johnson, of California, whose forensics made him a leader in the battle against Woodrow Wilson's pact, was as vehement an opposition leader as ever, although the little "battalion of defeat" minority cast now led by him was almost entirely a new one.

Behind the scenes, President Hoover and the state department took leading parts in prompting the treaty supporters. But their major task was to rally their cast to be present when the curtain rolls up daily. The senate cannot function without 49 of its 96 members, and a bare minimum quorum has been here for the last week.

Senator Allen, Kansas, republican young guard leader, has given up all hope of final action on the treaty this week. On his return from his conference at Harpden with Mr. Hoover, he said that this week would be taken up with general debate and "discussion of reservations." He said he had 27 not in their seats at all during the week. This creates a situation where, after the opposition senators

Continued on Page 4, Column 6.

GEORGIA TEACHER KILLED IN WRECK

Three Others Injured When Auto Overturns Near Jefferson.

ATHENS, Ga., July 13.—(AP)—Mrs. George P. Rowe, of Richmond, Va., instructor in the University of Georgia summer school here, was killed and three other teachers were injured in an automobile accident today near Jefferson.

The injured are E. B. Michaelis, instructor of music at Brenau College, Gainesville; Glenn Clements, of New York, and George Granberry of the Granberry School of Music, New York.

The four were en route to Gainesville in Mr. Granberry's car when the accident occurred. Mr. Granberry said the steering wheel locked suddenly and the automobile ran up an embankment. All were thrown from the machine but him. The car turned over on Mr. Granberry and crushed his foot.

Mrs. Rowe's neck was broken when she was thrown from the car. Mr. Michaelis and Mr. Clements suffered minor injuries. Mr. Granberry was brought to a hospital here. The others were taken to a hospital at Gainesville.

Mrs. Rowe was Mr. Granberry's assistant in the department of music at the summer school. She helped yearly with the summer opera that is sung here, and was en route to Gainesville to see some singers when she was killed.

Mr. Granberry had not been told of her death at noon, and said he would continue his plans for the annual opera.

Mrs. Rowe is survived by her husband, who is coming here tomorrow to make funeral arrangements; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rogers, of Dublin, Ga.; a daughter, Mrs. George Carver, of Louisville, Ky.; three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Kinsey, of Camilla, Ga.; Mrs. Tom Lester, of Dublin, Ga.; and Mrs. Mell Jordan, of Richmond; and two brothers whose names and addresses were not available.

He Brings This and 2 Others Home Today

Associated Press Photograph.

Undisputed ruler of the golf world, Bobby Jones is shown receiving the cup emblematic of supremacy among all the amateur and professional golfers of America. The picture was taken at the Interlachen Golf Club at Minneapolis, late Saturday afternoon just after Atlanta's favorite son had finished annexing his fourth national open title and just before he boarded a special car to head back for the proud Gate City and the greatest welcome ever seen in "the New York of the South." Findley Douglas, president of the U. S. G. A., is the man presenting the cup, which took its place in the Young Marston's 1930 golfing baggage right beside the British amateur and the British open trophies.

Jones Train Runs Into Many Delays

But "Iron Duke" and Party Will Arrive in Time for Welcome; Three Systems Aid Race

BY ED DANFORTH,
Constitution Sports Editor.

EN ROUTE TO ATLANTA WITH BOBBY JONES' PARTY, July 13.—Three great railroad systems forgot rivalries, clipped red tape and used every strategem at their command to get Bobby Jones and his three golf championships into Atlanta on time Monday.

Overcoming what for a time seemed insurmountable obstacles, including a burning bridge, officials of the Burlington route, the C. & E. I. and the Southern steered the special car in which Bobby and his party are returning to Atlanta through a labyrinthine route to land him on the dot for the contemplated civic welcome in the old home town.

Bobby's special car, the President Lincoln, will arrive Monday on the Ponce de Leon, which left Chicago four hours before Bobby did. That is something like an interstate commercial hole in one.

The champion will leave the train at a point up the line, they say, and will come into Atlanta by automobile just in time for the ceremonies. Aside from the fact that he is not to detract from the Terminal station the whole plan is a vast mystery to those on board. He is in the hands of his Atlanta friends and is prepared to make the last lap of the journey by airplane if necessary.

This altogether exciting trip home with three sides of bacon aboard began in a grand rush to get out of the Nicollet hotel in Minneapolis and three blocks down the street to the Great Northern station with a truckload of assorted baggage.

Burlington officials had provided a special compartment car for the Atlanta delegation and had billed it through Chicago, via the Big Four to Cincinnati and thence the Southern to Atlanta. Bobby himself, amazing as it may seem, had attended to all details of the journey, including baggage transportation, railroad reservations and assigning staterooms for the whole party. He has an orderly mind and one capable of carrying a tremendous load.

Aside from winning a golf championship he had had nothing to do in Minneapolis, and hence the transportation problem was easily attended to between routes.

Ten in Party.

In the party then were Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Black, Chick Ridley, Major Charles Cox, O. B. Keeler and your correspondent. Besides Bobby, Francis Powers, the syndicate writer, and his wife, were to join us in Chicago. Powers is coming to Atlanta to report the welcoming ceremonies for his news service.

The special car was attached to the North Coast Limited, the crack train to Chicago from the northwest. For some reason there was a delay in getting gangway through the yards. After crossing the Mississippi the train was held up in St. Paul for over an hour through another traffic jam. Finally it started for Chicago. An hour or so on the way and the train was forced to come to a sudden halt where a bridge was burning just ahead. No warning of the trouble had reached division headquarters. It then was necessary to back that long heavy

Continued on Page 4, Column 6.

100,000 ADMIRERS
EXPECTED TO HAIL CONQUERING HERO

Other Demonstrations
Will Pale Into Insignificance as Atlanta Declares Holiday To Greet Bobby.

PLANES TO CIRCLE
APPLAUDING CROWD

Feature of Day Will Be Colorful Parade, To Include City Officials, Civic Groups and Friends.

To the greatest welcome in the history of Atlanta, famed for its welcome to him and to others of greatness, Bobby Jones is coming home today.

One hundred thousand voices are expected to roar to Bobby the most tumultuous greeting our all-conquering monarch of golfdom ever received as he rides down Atlanta's path of heroes to the city hall, while from the skies circling airplanes will record in aerial maneuvers the esteem in which he is held by every one of his 350,000 admiring fellow citizens. In every corner of the city whistles will blow and bells will ring. Bobby Jones will be back among his home folks.

Twenty thousand greeted Bobby at the Terminal station when he came back from his great conquests of 1926. Sixty thousand shouted the city's welcome to Lindbergh a year later. Fifteen thousand more turned out on that memorable night when Georgia Tech's football champions of 1928 came home from the Rose Bowl. Today all of these great receptions will pale into insignificance. It is a civic holiday in Atlanta—the greatest that has ever dawned.

Thrice crowned since he left us two months ago for his golfing wars abroad and at home Bobby Jones is bringing back to Atlanta, three emblems of super-power in his sport, three emblems that no one man ever won before. In his victorious march he caught the public fancy as no man ever did before, save Lindbergh, and all in a little more than seven weeks.

"Peachtree Will Look Good." Perhaps Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street, empty and baking beneath a scorching July sun, would look great to Bobby, whose thoughts, though he be thousands of miles from Atlanta, always are of his homeland. Perhaps the thrill of a train porter calling "Atlanta" sounds better to him even than the announcement that "Peachtree street,

WITNESS WILL RETRACT MOONEY BOMB STORY

Itinerant Waiter Who Swore Communist Into Prison
To See Young.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.
United News Staff Correspondent.
BALTIMORE, Md., July 13.—John MacDonald will be released tomorrow by the police preparatory to his long journey to California, where he will attempt to free two men, Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, who

Permanent Wave

Behind our wave is the knowledge and experience of over 30 years of the acknowledged leaders in hair treatment. We take a pride in every Permanent we give, and there is no more lovely or lasting wave, no matter what price you pay.

Maison Victoire, Inc.

Two Shops in Atlanta
113 1/2 ALABAMA ST.
Phone Jackson 8986
Cor. Whitehall and Alabama
181 1/2 PEACHTREE ST.
Phone JA. 9378-9379
Opposite Davidson-Paxon's
And Shops All Over the Southland

(Personal)
Food and other articles you buy in stores cost less to put up these days, because all over the world the raw materials used in them have become cheaper. Every saving of this kind that comes to A&P goes to you as a matter of course.
That is one reason why the cost of living of A&P customers is steadily going down.

have been in jail 14 years on testimony he gave and now declares false.
The broken, decrepit old man, who has hobbled onto the stage, dramatically, in what may be the final act of one of the country's most famous and controversial mystery dramas, will be given into custody of his youthful attorney, Charles Ruzicka, and Hillary Gans, by the circuit court for the final preparation of the new move to free Mooney and Billings.

The lawyers, both World War veterans and members of a conservative and established Baltimore firm, said tonight it probably would be a week before they will leave for California. It will take several days, they believe, to work up their case.

In San Francisco, MacDonald will be back at the scene of the 1916 preparedness parade bombing which took 10 lives. He is ready to tell Governor C. C. Young that it was neither Mooney nor Billings that he saw at the fateful corner of Market and Searcy streets with a satchel containing the dynamite that set off an explosion whose repercussions since have gone round the world.

May Bring Charge.
The governor, to whom he will tell his story, indicated that MacDonald's reputation might change his recent decision denying Mooney a pardon. Those fighting for the two men also expect to use MacDonald in an effort to get a rehearing before the state supreme court, which recently denied Billings a pardon. Frank P. Walsh,

SUMMER COLD?
Get overnight results with this guaranteed prescription or get your money back. The 80c bottle contains twice as much as the 35c size. At all drug stores.

LAX-ANA

(Double Strength)
VACATION SUGGESTIONS
for your trip this summer

Places to go—things to see—ways to travel—staterooms—travel booklets.
"DIXIE FLYER" travel booklet.
Clear—complete—concise suggestions covering vacation trips of from two to four weeks vacation.
For booklets and information address:
DIXIE FLYER ROUTE
C&F L&N N&S
C. B. Harris, 191 Marietta St., Atlanta, Ga.

of New York, long a champion of the two labor leaders, a veteran lawyer will act for them. He also will go to the coast with MacDonald.
MacDonald's lawyers realize they cannot carry her too long. MacDonald is a sick man and a veritable nervous wreck. The long transcontinental trip will be a severe strain upon a physique almost at the point of collapse, and part of that due to long worry and sleepless nights. They do not want death to cheat justice. MacDonald is in such condition that an ordeal such as he now faces may go very hard with him.

But he faces it with a certain calm air of relief, as he sits in the police station where he has been detained since he was "found" Friday night. He is glad to be free at last from what he says has been a nightmare. Sprinkled through the affidavit which he signed last night, absolutely repudiating his testimony, are frequent reminders of his worry.

"I could not sleep at night and I had gone off in weight almost to a shadow," he said.

Quiet Worker.
His lawyers are preparing to get character affidavits from people here in Baltimore who have known him. Donald in the last six years has been a quiet night watchman and as a night telephone operator in a fashionable apartment house who said very little to anybody. These will be used to build up his case.

The youthful lawyers were very careful when MacDonald's affidavit was made, to have it witnessed by the state's attorney for Baltimore, Herbert R. O'Connor, and several police officers. They want no question raised about the circumstances of its preparation. Such questions were raised after the first affidavit in 1921, repudiating the testimony at the four trials, which MacDonald upheld in his new affidavits.

This will be MacDonald's third trip to California. He went back in 1921 after his first repudiation but did not testify under threats he would be indicted for perjury. He will go back now and tell his story whatever the consequences, he says. His lawyers, however, are confident the statute of limitations has run on MacDonald's trial testimony and do not fear any perjury charges.

WILL NOT FORCE RETURN TO STATE.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—(UP)—Although three branches of California government expressed great interest in John MacDonald's latest repudiation of the testimony he gave against Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings in the 1916 preparedness day bombing trials, it is not likely that any step will be taken to force his return to this state. Governor C. C. Young, Chief Justice William H. Waste and Acting Chief of Police Dulles, of San Francisco, all declared today that the return of MacDonald is up to MacDonald and the Mooney defense league.

The finding of MacDonald in Baltimore clinched an interesting week in connection with the Billings and Mooney cases.
Billings was convicted in 1916 of the bombing which killed 10 persons and destroyed property valued at $1,000,000. MacDonald was convicted a year later. Billings was sent to Folsom prison for life and Mooney was sentenced to death but later the sentence was commuted to life in San Quentin prison.

The pardon of Mooney had long been before Governor Young but he refused to act until the supreme court had heard the case against Billings. The review was necessary because Billings had been previously convicted.

Stressed Testimony.
Stressing the importance of the MacDonald testimony, which included an assertion that he saw Billings at the scene of the explosion, the supreme court refused to recommend a pardon for Billings. Governor Young followed the court's lead. Mooney's pardon application and also stressed MacDonald's testimony.

Both the court and the governor declined to consider seriously an affidavit made by MacDonald in 1921 in which his testimony was repudiated.

A loophole was left by the governor, who suggested that friends of Mooney and Billings find MacDonald and have him appear before the supreme court. That started the search for the key witness which ended in locating him in Baltimore.

Should MacDonald return to California it is possible almost not probable that a perjury charge will be placed against him.
California law provides that the crime of perjury comes under the statute of limitations within three years after the offense, provided the alleged perjury lives in the state for three years.

MacDonald testified against Billings in 1916 and did not leave California until 1921, as the limitation statute provides that in that case, his testimony against Mooney, coming a year later, makes him liable for perjury prosecution. No charge has been filed, however, nor does it seem likely that a charge will be filed.

No Charge.
San Francisco police have no interest in holding MacDonald because no charge lies against him. Governor Young and Judge Waste both said their departments of the state government lacked authority to do anything toward returning MacDonald.
The governor suggested that the Mooney defense league effect MacDonald's return here on a voluntary basis and to this Mary Gallagher, secretary of the league, said the league would gladly do so, paying all of the expenses.

Word of an affidavit made in Baltimore last night, in which MacDonald repudiated his testimony at the trial of 1921 was considered of great significance by members of the Mooney defense league.

Illinois Primary Probe Opens Today
CHICAGO, July 13.—(UP)—Ruth Hanna McCormick will appear as the first witness before the senate campaign funds committee tomorrow at the opening of the inquiry into the expenditures of the candidates in Illinois' republican senatorial primary last April.

Mrs. McCormick, who previously reported that she spent $252,500 to defeat Senator Charles S. Deneen for the nomination, requested that she be granted the privilege of appearing and is expected to present a prepared statement to the committee.
Senator Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, chairman of the committee, said she would be called at the opening of the inquiry. He added that she had already given him a supplemental report on her expenditures, which would be read into the record, in addition to her statement.

A score or more of other witnesses have been summoned for tomorrow, principal among them being Colonel R. R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune; W. R. Farmer, who was Mrs. McCormick's campaign chief in Cook county; James W. Snyder, who assisted her in her downstate work and several Cook county officials.

Senator Nye did not disclose what he hoped to learn. He said his committee merely would act as a fact-finding body in pursuit of evidence to support "numerous complaints that Mrs. McCormick's campaign cost considerably more than the amount she herself spent."

The committee will report its findings to the senate, which will determine what, if any, action is to be taken.
While the principal task of the committee is to inquire into Mrs. McCormick's campaign, Senator Nye said the activities in behalf of Senator Deneen would not be ignored. No investigation is to be made into the campaign of James Hamilton Lewis, the former senator who won the democratic nomination without much opposition. "No one complained that his nomination cost any more than the $35 he submitted as his expenses," Senator Nye said.

Senator Nye, after completing the inquiry here, will go to Philadelphia on August 4 to conduct the senate's investigation of the recent Pennsylvania senatorial primary.

Dentist Faces Suit For Shooting Tom Cat

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 13.—(UP)—A dentist who shot a tomcat that disturbed his slumbers with nocturnal miaowings and mating calls on the back fence has been made defendant in a $5,000 damage suit brought by the pet's splinter owner.
The suit, filed by Miss Mary Brent Hutchcraft against her next-door neighbor, Dr. W. W. Taylor, alleges the dentist inflicted on one Jerry a "severe and dangerous wound," resulting in great trouble to his owner, who nursed him back to health, by preserving one of Jerry's nine lives.
Miss Hutchcraft's petition further sets out that "being out of her attentive interest and affectionate manner in conduct towards her affords her great solace, pleasure and satisfaction, and that by the acts complained of she was damaged in the sum of $5,000."
Accompanying the damage suit was petition for a restraining order to prevent the dentist from further molesting Jerry.

STANDARD ANNOUNCES NEW GASOLINE PATENT

Method Will Get Twice as Much Fuel From Crude Oil.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(UP)—Oil companies representing 30 per cent of the refining capacity of the United States have been brought into association in one company by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey for the purpose of controlling a new process of gasoline where only one was produced before, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey announced today.

The new company, the announcement says, has been named the Hydro-Patents Company, organized under the laws of Delaware. It is to control the use within the United States of the process which has been developed by Standard Oil research engineers collaborating with the German I. G. Farbenindustrie. The process is owned by these two companies.

Research by Standard Oil engineers indicates that multiplication of the gasoline yield from Venezuelan crude oil will make this source alone a major factor in dealing with the overproduction of crude oil and the price cutting which has existed during the last few years.

Venezuela is one of the world's largest producers of oil from which heretofore only a small proportion of gasoline and a remainder of fuel oil have been obtained.

The Hydro-Patents Company will pay to the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the German I. G. Farbenindustrie a fixed royalty in return for control of the process in this country.

84-Year-Old Suicides.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 13.—(UP)—In ill health and feeling the burden of his years, John Schwab, 84, leaped 130 feet to his death from a bridge into the waters of the Genesee river today. Many motorists passing over the bridge saw the plunge. The body was recovered.

Metropolitan Museum Gets Post Collection

NEW YORK, July 13.—(UP)—The Metropolitan Museum of Art has gained a new collection of rare merit as the result of the recent decision of Mrs. Emilie Thorne Post, once a leader in Newport society, to become a Carmelite nun.

Mrs. Post took the veil May 17, at which time her villa, Stoneleigh, at Newport, was taken over as a convent by the Order of Carmelites. She became a novice in what had been her own home.
The museum would have gained the collection eventually under the will of her husband, Edward C. Post, who died in 1915, but the poverty of nun prompted Mrs. Post to divest herself of her property now.

Registration at Oglethorpe

For 1930-31
begins September 24th and student planning to attend should make their reservations at once. For catalog and other literature address Thorne and Jacobs, President, Oglethorpe University, Georgia.—(adv.)

CHEAP EXCURSION—SATURDAY, JULY 19TH

Wrightsville Beach, N. C. $12.00 Round Trip—Good 10 Days
Myrtle Beach, S. C. 12.00 Round Trip—Good 10 Days
Charleston, S. C. 12.00 Round Trip—Good 10 Days
Savannah, Ga. 12.00 Round Trip—Good 10 Days
Augusta, Ga. 12.00 Round Trip—Good 10 Days
Walnut 3666 GEORGIA RAILROAD Walnut 2726

A Wonderful Roast

For Bobby to Eat—
And Nothing But PRAISE For His Wonderful Beat
After the Big Parade Visit a

ROGERS
CLEAN, COOL, INVITING
Store and Market
Welcome Home, Conqueror of the Golf World
You—with your modest, genteel, gentlemanly manners—have brought added fame to our fair city and crowned yourself the Prince of Sports.

Where You Will Find Values Like These

GELFAND'S MAYONNAISE Med. Jar 17c	SNO-MELLOW MARSHMALLOW CREAM In Half Pint Glass Jar 10c Fine for Toppings, Meringue, etc.
SELOX The Speed Soap 2 18-Oz. Pkgs. 25c Soaks Clothes Clean	ORANGE PEKOE Tetley's Tea 10c 9c Quarter Pound 24c Size Half Pound, 47c
SPRING BROOK—FINE CREAMERY BUTTER Lb. 35c In Quarter-Pound Cubes	ZION—FULL O' FIGS FIG BARS Lb. 15c
ROSEMARY GRAPE JAM 16-Oz. Glass 21c When Empty Makes a Pretty Rose-Colored Tea Glass	HEINZ FRESH Cucumber Pickle 12-Oz. Jar 19c
GIBBS' PORK AND BEANS 2 Reg. Cans 15c	ROGERS' FRESH SANDWICH BREAD A Big Delicious Loaf—Try it! 12c

UNIQUE AND HANDY
MENASHA
Table Cover and Napkins
Just the Thing for Teas or Bridge Parties
One 40x40 Paper Table Cover 15c
Four 14x14 Paper Napkins 25c
They come in pretty checkerboard design, Mayflower pattern—red, blue and green.

Post's Whole Bran, Kellogg's Bran, Comet Rice Flakes, Skinner's Raisin Bran . . . 2 Pkgs. for 25c

IN OUR MARKETS Boiling Beef, Lb. . . . 15c Pot Roast, Lb. . . . 18c Chuck Roast, Lb. . . . 25c Chuck Steak, Lb. . . . 25c Shoulder Roast, Lb. . . . 30c Shoulder Steak, Lb. . . . 30c Rib Roast, Lb. . . . 33c Rump Roast, Lb. . . . 33c Round Steak, Lb. . . . 45c Loin Steak, Lb. . . . 45c Club Steak, Lb. . . . 50c Porterhouse Steak, Lb. 50c	IN OUR PRODUCE DEPTS. CALIFORNIA SUNKIST LEMONS Doz. 15c No. 1 WHITE VIRGINIA Cobblers 5 Pounds for 17c WHITE SILVER SKIN ONIONS Lb. 7c FANCY Cantaloupes Each 10c & 12 1/2c	In Our New Store 533 Peachtree St. Frozen Cuts You'll Like Steaks from 1/2 to 3 pounds. Roasts—all kinds—from 2 1/2 to 5 pounds. Lamb Roasts and Chops. Pork Roasts and Chops. Veal Roasts and Chops. In all sizes and cellophane wrapped—sealing the flavor in.
--	--	---

DON'T OVERLOOK THESE BIG VALUES
Royal Fruit Flavored GELATIN 3 3 1/2-Oz. Pkgs. 25c Try the new Lime Flavor.
Libby's Vienna SAUSAGE 1/2 Size Can 10c Tasty—Convenient
Libby's Apple BUTTER 2 Lb. Can 19c Contains Purest of Spices.
A Big Tea Value—Temple Garden 1-4 Lb. 13c 1-2 Lb. 25c

NEW LOW PRICES ON Plain and Self-Rising
FLOUR
Brand 12-Lb. Sack 24-Lb. Sack
BALLARD'S . . . . . 69c $1.25
POSTEL'S . . . . . 73c $1.39
SUNNYFIELD . . . . . 57c $1.09
IONA . . . . . 45c 87c

GELFAND'S MAYONNAISE
Medium Jar 15c Pint Jar 30c
RELISH 7-OZ. JAR 17c PT. JAR 33c

RAJAH SALAD DRESSING 8 1/2-OZ. JAR 13c
A&P PURE CONCORD GRAPE JUICE
Pint Bottle 19c Quart Bottle 35c
A&P PURE GRAPE JELLY 2 7-OZ. JARS 25c

WHITE HOUSE EVAPORATED MILK 3 Tall Cans 25c
NECTAR ORANGE PEKOE TEA 1 Lb. 15c
EIGHT O'CLOCK COFFEE Lb. 25c

POTATOES
U. S. No. 1 COBBLERS Lb. 3c
CALIFORNIA SUNKIST ORANGES DOZ. 63c (Large 176 or 150 size—the kind and size you will find selling elsewhere at 90c per dozen.)

OUR BIG MARKET VALUES (CHOICEST MEATS AT STILL LOWER PRICES)
HAMBURGER CHUCK STEAK Freshly Ground Lb. 19c Tender and Juicy Lb. 25c
BERG'S FRANKFURTERS, lb. . . . . 28c
PIMENTO MINCED HAM, 1/2 lb. . . . . 15c
HOME-BAKED HAM, 1/4 lb. . . . . 23c
SLICED DRIED BEEF, 1/4 lb. . . . . 19c
WE CARRY A COMPLETE LINE OF CHEESE AND COLD MEATS AT ALL TIMES

IONA BRAND CUT BEETS OR STRING BEANS 2 NO. 2 CANS 25c

DEL MONTE—SLICED PINEAPPLE 2 NO. 2 CANS 25c
ADDS 70% NOURISHMENT TO THE MILK
COCOMALT 1/4-LB. CAN 23c

IN OUR PRODUCE DEPTS.
CROWDER PEAS —OR— BUTTER BEANS
HOME-GROWN YOUR CHOICE 2 LBS. FOR 15c

TOMATOES
HOME-GROWN FIRM AND RIPE Lb. 10c
U. S. No. 1 COBBLERS Lb. 3c

ORANGES DOZ. 63c (Large 176 or 150 size—the kind and size you will find selling elsewhere at 90c per dozen.)

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.
SOUTHERN DIVISION

Soviets Re-elect Alex Rykov, Stalin Enemy, To High Post

Other Trotsky Sympathizers Win and Fact Is Taken as Re-establishment of Harmony.

MOSCOW, July 13.—(P)—Alexei Rykov, whose position not only as a member of the powerful political bureau of the communist party but as premier of Russia had been seriously endangered by his activities in the right wing opposition, surprised everybody today by being re-elected to the all-powerful political bureau of the communist party.

head of the Russian cabinet, which foreign reports said Josef Stalin coveted, has been assured. The political bureau of the communist party is the inner sanctum of bolshevik government.

Rykov's re-election, in the face of repeated assertions he would be severely censured for having dared to oppose Stalin, Russia's iron man, assumes the character of a personal triumph.

Trotsky Friends Elected. Scarcely less surprising today was the re-election to the important central committee of the party of Nicholas Bukharin and Michael Tomski, who have been active members of the right wing opposition.

All these together are taken to mean that Stalin and the other leaders of the party have accepted at face value the retractions of the leaders of the "right wing" heresy.

Rykov and the others have promised henceforth to adhere loyally to the policies of the central committee, where Stalin is all-powerful.

Tomski, however, failed to keep his place in the political bureau, which was filled by Sergei Kirov. M. Kirov is head of the Leningrad branch of the communist party and one of the rising stars on the soviet political horizon.

Stalin himself, amid thunderous cheers, was re-elected general secretary of the party, a position of the greatest power and strategic importance.

Labor Commissar Defeated. The complete membership of the political bureau, as elected by the party congress today, follows: Alexei Rykov, Lement Voroshilov, Michael Kalinin, Jan Rantak, Joseph Stalin, M. Kibyshev, Sergei Kirov, M. Molotov, M. Kaganovich, and M. Kossior. Kaganovich, Kirov and Kossior are new members. The others were re-elected.

M. Kaganovich, M. Molotov, M. Postishev and M. Baumann were chosen associate secretaries of the party, assisting Stalin.

The only right wing leader to be defeated entirely was Nicholas Uglanov, commissar of labor, who in the present party congress twice made sweeping and abject recantation of his views and activities as a member of the opposition. He was defeated not only for re-election but for membership as well in the central committee.

This double defeat may ultimately mean that Uglanov will lose his portfolio in the cabinet.

With today's elections, the 16th congress of the party closed its sessions. Three cheers were given for Stalin and then the delegates sang the "Internationale."

Although the commission last week closed one stage of the hot railroad contest over New York passenger business—entailing automobile service on an important scale—railroad men say the competitive controversy there is far from ended, and that the New York situation is being treated as an opportunity for important experimentation with the possibilities.

The Pennsylvania railroad, which owns one of the best known of all passenger terminals in the heart of New York city, has found it somewhat inadequate to demands of modern travel. It sought permission to install a motorized system of pick-up and delivery of passengers at house or hotel doors, and was refused by the federal agency.

The commission's decision, however, now appears to have been sharply qualified; the Pennsylvania may have merely been refused the right to install the auto extensions for its passengers on a schedule basis.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Cultivate Humor, McElveen Urges

In his sermon Sunday on "Cultivating Our Imagination," the Rev. Dr. W. T. McElveen, pastor of the United Congregational church, said:

"We Americans are lacking in humor. The humor of the American drama and motion picture is of the crude, slap-stick variety. The American practical joke is often cruelly disguised. It frequently has a vengeful purpose. It aims to make its victim uncomfortable, and calls him a good sport if he can laugh at his own discomfort. However, we are making some progress. The day of the pie-throwing, feet-shuffling Charlie Chaplin has gone, and the day of Will Rogers, with his sagacious, common-sense observations and witty allusions, has come.

"It is not because we are too serious a people that we Americans are so lacking in humor. It is because we are not serious enough. Humor is at its best in great solemn spirits. Dante was full of it; so were Shakespeare and Cervantes. Tolstol had elements of greatness, but he missed being a genius because he was humorless. Dickens had not quite as much power, but his genial good humor made him immortal."

J. A. PERRY REPLIES TO HOLDER ADDRESS

Candidate for Governor Says Fight Now Is Where It Was Six Months Ago.

In a reply to the Washington, Ga., speech of John H. Holder, candidate for governor, delivered Saturday, James A. Perry, another candidate for the same office, declared in a statement issued Sunday that the fight now is where it was six months ago:

"Perry against the book trust, certain road construction and road machinery forces, which interests are supporting Mr. Carswell and Mr. Holder respectively."

Mr. Perry's statement said: "True to my prediction, Mr. Holder in his Washington, Ga., speech Saturday, started his one hope of trying to sell the idea to the people that the fight is still on between he and Governor Hardman. He has a very low estimate of the intelligence of the voters of Georgia. Holder knows, as Carswell knows, that the people are not falling for their efforts to perpetuate their old political feud and with this effort out of the picture, Holder's and Carswell's cause is fast crumbling. It is the common belief throughout the state, so far as I have been able to develop, that this fight is now where it was when I started my campaign six months ago: Perry against the book trust, certain road construction and road machinery forces, which interests are supporting Mr. Carswell and Mr. Holder, respectively."

From reports generally throughout the state, the people are aroused to the one issue and the fight is going to be confined between these interests and their satellites (Carswell and Holder) and myself.

"The people know that Mr. Russell and Mr. Rivers have plenty of time during the next 15 or 20 years for experience to justify their claims to the responsibility attached to the governor's office."

"As to Mr. Russell, the people are justly resenting his proposal to turn over the control of the state to one family—his family."

"It was demonstrated two years ago that the people of Georgia are not yet ready to go to Arkansas for a governor. Mr. Rivers came to this state from his native state, Arkansas, after growing into young manhood, and since becoming a citizen of Georgia he has made a public record which was submitted to the people through the state two years ago, and generally repudiated by the voters. That record has not been changed in the last two years. It is generally known that the anti-Hardman support, the Holder support, the road construction and road machinery people back of Mr. Rivers two years ago gave him some 75,000 of the 97,000 votes he received. The influences giving him this 75,000 votes are not for Rivers in this race. It follows that those best acquainted with the present campaign are predicting that Mr. Rivers will not poll in excess of 20,000 votes."

"Had there been prospects of an outstanding candidate to whom the citizens of Georgia could look with confidence in restoring order out of the chaotic conditions in which we find our state affairs, I would not have made the race. It was known all over the state when I announced that the four above referred to would be the only ones in the race, and were actively engaged in a quiet canvass at that time."

"I am simply submitting a statement of facts to the citizens of Georgia, in order that they may have brought to their immediate attention the true picture confronting the future of our great state, as well as to give them the opportunity of voting for a man that has a right to some claim for relief from the political mess now characterizing the functioning of our state government."

Seven Condemned Men To Get Sanity Trials

OSKISING, N. Y., July 13.—(UN)—Seven condemned men will undergo sanity tests at Sing Sing prison Monday or Tuesday, all hoping they will be declared of unsound mind and permitted to spend their lives in a madhouse.

Three of the men are scheduled to die Thursday night. They are Alexander Bogdenoff, Max Rybarczyk and Stephen Grezchowski, sentenced to electrocution for the murder of a Buffalo restaurant man. The others are Claude Udwine, William Force, Jesse Thomas and Hyman Hirsch, Auburn prison rioters.

Nearly a Billion Is Year's Dry Law Cost

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(P)—The Association Against the Prohibition Amendment issued a statement today estimating the cost for enforcement of the dry law during 1929 was $4,000,000 more than for the preceding year.

Prohibition cases in federal courts increased from 40,748 to 50,455, it said. Apparently, these additional court costs accounted for most of the increase in prohibition enforcement cost reported by the association.

Estimating a loss in revenue to the government for prohibition, the association placed the "total loss" to the nation last year at $959,872,870.

Sunday Trips

Tallahassee	.....$1.50
Lakemont	.....1.75
Clayton	.....2.00
Mt. City	.....2.00
Franklin	.....2.25

Lv. Terminal Station 7:40 A. M.
Return to Atlanta 8:30 P. M.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

We Are Proud of You

Bobby Jones!

And we join the "home folks" in welcoming you back to Atlanta. You have thrilled us with your mighty prowess at home and abroad . . . you have "brought home the bacon."

Long may you reign
as King of Golf!

J. M. High Co.
Atlanta, Ga.

Get Into The Swim!

and

Welcome with us the Champion of All Champions

BOBBY JONES

BATHING SUITS

[ One Piece Styles
Two Piece Styles ]

$5

MAN will be a more exposed creature this summer than ever before. That's due to the fact that the new Bathing Suits are cut lower than ever. Offered in one or two piece styles; solid colors or in striped effects—and all wool, of course.

Eiseman's
56-58
Peachtree St.
Thru to Broad

I. C. C. LIKELY TO ALLOW RAILWAY BUS SERVICE

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(P)—If progress in railroad transportation is going to require the great transportation systems to engage in picking up and delivering passengers and freight at house-door and store entrance, present indications are that the interstate commerce commission is willing to facilitate the development.

Although the commission last week closed one stage of the hot railroad contest over New York passenger business—entailing automobile service on an important scale—railroad men say the competitive controversy there is far from ended, and that the New York situation is being treated as an opportunity for important experimentation with the possibilities.

The Pennsylvania railroad, which owns one of the best known of all passenger terminals in the heart of New York city, has found it somewhat inadequate to demands of modern travel. It sought permission to install a motorized system of pick-up and delivery of passengers at house or hotel doors, and was refused by the federal agency.

The commission's decision, however, now appears to have been sharply qualified; the Pennsylvania may have merely been refused the right to install the auto extensions for its passengers on a schedule basis.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

Promptly, not only the Baltimore and Ohio, but the other roads with terminals on the Jersey Central shore intervened. If the Pennsylvania were allowed with all its Manhattan terminal advantage to run busses and accomplish house-door delivery of rail passengers, they would be forced to follow suit, they said. A great increase in New York's already congested street traffic was among the possibilities foreseen and touched on in the argument.

Nevertheless, though the commission tentatively ruled against the proposals as filed, the language of the decision is so worded, many say, as to permit further experimentation. The commission is known to consider that a possible co-operation of railroads in bus and truck operation in cities might be highly advantageous; that transport systems can be so related as to reduce present congestion in cities very materially when the rail carriers are willing to assume responsibility for organizing their traffic service generally a step further than they have hitherto carried it.

Since one of its rivals, the Baltimore and Ohio, initiated automobile bus service right into Manhattan, avoiding difficulty with the commission simply by doing it without filing regular transport schedules, it still is possible for the Pennsylvania to proceed in some other fashion to supplement its railroad cars with busses.

The remarkable revolution in transport conditions which development of automotive transport has brought about is regarded by interested people as best illustrated by the New York city squabble in which the commission's ruling was interjected. Though the Pennsylvania, like the New York Central, at a cost of hundreds of millions, puts its passenger rails into the city, less wealthy lines have been unable to match the facilities. They stopped on the Jersey shore. The Baltimore and Ohio, permitted during the federal railroad control to run passenger trains into the Pennsylvania, New York terminals, was excluded as soon as carriers were returned to private control. Experimentally, the Baltimore line installed a relatively inexpensive bus service from the Jersey shore into New York city, and the rubber-tired rigs have obviously worked havoc with the Pennsylvania's passenger traffic, for that carrier, after two years of experience, applied to the commission for authority to run busses out of its New York and Newark terminals to reach right into the residence districts and pick up the passengers who were finding the several scattered B. & O. bus stations in New York city convenient.

In a scientist it's Accuracy

in a cigarette it's Taste

EVERYTHING THAT SCIENCE and the most modern of research facilities can provide, contributes to and safeguards the uniform good taste and purity of Chesterfield cigarettes.

TO THIS END we maintain a thoroughly modern industrial laboratory with a staff of chemical experts, intent first and last, upon wholesome goodness.

YOU HAVE ONLY TO SMOKE a Chesterfield to recognize at once that here is a cigarette—fine, pure, mild and genuinely good—with every quality a cigarette must have to satisfy . . . "TASTE above everything".

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of fine quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price. LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Chesterfield

HOOVER TARIFF 'AID' ATTACKED BY BLACK

Alabama Senator Claims Benefits Have Not Been Forthcoming.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(AP)—Recalling the promise of Senator Watson, of Indiana, the republican leader, of "prosperous days" under the new tariff law, Senator Black, of Alabama, in a statement issued today through the democratic national com-

CHEAP EXCURSION

Montgomery, Mobile, Pensacola, New Orleans
—AND—
Mississippi Gulf Coast Resorts
Saturday, July 19th

	Good	Good
	Days	10 Days
Mobile, Ala. ....	$ 8.00	$15.00
Pensacola, Fla. ....	8.00	15.00
Pascagoula, Miss. ....	10.00	15.00
Ocean Springs ....	10.75	15.00
Biloxi, Miss. ....	10.75	15.00
Gulfport, Miss. ....	11.50	15.00
Pass Christian ....	12.00	15.00
Bay St. Louis ....	12.25	15.00
New Orleans, La. ....	12.50	15.00

Montgomery, Ala., $3.50
Good 3 Days

Tickets good on trains leaving Atlanta 5:40 A. M., 1:25 P. M., and 4:30 P. M., Saturday, July 19th. Make sleeping car reservations now. Phone WA. 2726 or MA. 5800.

THE WEST POINT ROUTE

Len Broughton Scores Grafters, Praises Boykin

Dr. Len G. Broughton, in his sermon Sunday night at the Baptist Tabernacle on "Judas, the Grafter, Who Went to His Own Place," after showing how Judas was the prototype of the modern grafter in political positions and in all other phases of life, said, "Just as it is said in the Scriptures, 'he went to his own place,' so it may be said with regard to every grafter. In his grafting procedure he not only receives from others that which rightly belongs to them, but in so doing he is making for himself his own place, and to his own place he will ultimately be forced to go. It may be well for such people to observe that it is not always necessary to die to be rewarded for such dirty deeds. The searching hand of fate often overtakes such people before death and forces them into the place which they have made for themselves.

"The fact is, there is a sense in which every man is making his own place. This is the solemn fact of life. Our daily doings make for us the place that we are to occupy. Not everybody gets justice in this life, but most generally it will come creeping along and overtake us somewhere. But if it should fail to overtake us here, it will get us when the gates of eternity close upon our immortal souls. Let us not forget that a dirty deal to others is an immortal wound to ourselves.

"The grafting situation in Atlanta, as recently revealed, and the revelation is still hardly begun, is the most shocking blow that Atlanta has ever had. Our businessmen have sat through the years knowing that political rottenness was gnawing at the very heart of our body politic, and yet they have kept silence until the force of circumstances began to bring things to light. The community will never be able to pay its debt to Solicitor-General John A. Boykin for his unflinching fidelity to the people's rights in the investigation that has been going on, and is still going on, and every right-thinking man hopes will continue to go on until every department in city and county has a chance to be exonerated if innocent, and brought to justice if guilty. There are good men in places of political trust in the city and in the county, but we have seen enough to know that we have hardly begun the cleansing process.

"The census report shows the alarming fact that Atlanta ranks third in the high death rate of babies in the whole United States. No wonder this is true when the devilish graft monster has got hold of the department looking after the city's poor sick. Think of the poor unemployed or salary reduced people in Atlanta, and the price of ice during these recent excessively hot days being increased 50 per cent by the companies that furnish our people with this necessary commodity! How can we expect anything but a harvest for the death reaper among the poor, who are legion in this city?

"My heart aches and bleeds as I mix and mingle with them, see their sickness, hear their suffering, and am faced with their needs, and yet am absolutely helpless to help. My friends, I say to you that something must be done, and must be done quickly, or else the stab which we now have will bleed us to death. Is it of no concern to our great body of fine businessmen that such conditions exist here, or are they ignorant of them? Personally, I want, as God knows my heart, to be of some help. I am not calling attention to these things merely as an agitator; I am trying to do some constructive thinking. And please listen to me when I suggest this line of action, which I feel sure would result in helping the situation in a wonderful way.

"I suggest that the editors of our three daily newspapers, Mr. Clark Howell, Mr. John S. Cohen and Mr. James B. Nevin, get together and appoint a citizens' committee consisting of 50 of our most representative people to meet at the earliest possible date to consider the serious problem of taking care of our unemployed and needy people. Surely there are ways of arriving at the true situation and of remedying it so as to carry us over this temporary period of anxiety and suffering on the part of many of Atlanta's worthy citizens. I can conceive of a number of ways by which this can be done, and everybody helped, while the great old Atlanta spirit is seen alive once again."

Casino Gets Back Some of Money Miss Dolly Won

PARIS, July 13.—(UN)—Two young women well known on stage and screen in the United States had difficulties at the Le Touquet casino this week-end.

Jenny Dolly, famed as a dancer and entertainer, was reported to be a heavy loser at baccarat at Le Touquet as a result of a sensational orgy of betting at the tables which did not end until 4 a. m. She sat in on the game about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and arose 12 hours later, having lost heavily—just how much none said.

She won about 6,000,000 francs a week ago, however, hence, as those present commented, she was "playing on velvet."

The other was Lili Damita. Lili, just back for a visit from Broadway and Hollywood, tried to get into the baccarat room and they wouldn't let her. For Lili, who is 22 and pretty, looks more like 16, and a guard, escorting her out under protest, said: "Children are not admitted."

Miss Damita was refused admittance at first because she did not have her passport. She waited her chance, however, and gambling on her luck, slipped in unobserved. Her chortling was short-lived. The guard, or an inspector, to be exact, spotted her and out she went—not on the grounds of the missing passport, but because, despite all she could say, the man remained firm, as one must with children. He put her out. Lili, almost in tears, eventually was recognized and placated by the director.

Dr. Sam Small Named to Head Vets' Delegation

Dr. Sam W. Small, of The Constitution, Sunday afternoon was unanimously elected to head a delegation of Spanish-American War Veterans from the Lee Roosevelt camp No. 6, to the national encampment to be held in Philadelphia August 18-21. Frank J. Hives and Dave Dean were the other delegates named.

Alternates chosen are J. J. Jeffries, Robert S. Stewart and Dr. J. A. Yeast. Department delegates from the camp are Ralph Steckel and John L. Cone. Other comrades who volunteered to attend the encampment are S. A. Greer, T. J. Meigs, W. M. Newman and Frank Lester.

Barney Bernard, senior vice commander, addressed the meeting, at which action was taken to stage a dance and entertainment at an early date for the benefit of the camp's relief fund.

Fake Health Peddlers Put in Rogues Gallery

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—The health department has established a "rogues gallery" of medical quackery. Commissioner Shirley W. Wynne announced today.

It is a list of 25,000 manufacturers and peddlers of allegedly fake remedies and containing "word pictures" of quack doctors all over the United States. It took six months to complete and is said to be the first of its kind in any health department in the world.

It was originally advocated by Commissioner Wynne for use in an attempt to rid the radio field of questionable broadcasting on medical and similar matters. A majority of the radio stations here agreed to bar such undesirable broadcasts.

Dry Agents Padlock New Negro Church

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 13.—(UN)—Negro members of St. Paul Baptist church here had to go without their Sunday services today. It was to have been a big day, with dedication and opening ceremonies at the Washington street building which was recently acquired for use as a church. But a large padlock hung on the front door.

Two federal agents visited the church Saturday night and placed the padlock on the door, the charge being that Charles Ryan, who formerly used the structure for a restaurant, had sold beer on the premises.

Ryan moved his restaurant out of the building over a year ago, it is said, and just recently the owner, James P. Meehan, leased it to the negro congregation for use as a church. The church officers spent a tidy sum in refurbishing the place. A large number of out-of-town guests had been invited to come to Jersey City and participate in the dedication and opening today. Meehan, the owner, said tonight that his attorney will make an effort to have the padlock removed, in order that the deferred dedication may be held next Sunday.

a PAUL'S SALE

means something
TO THE WOMAN WHO KNOWS

She knows that Paul's one price shoes reduced to—

3.85
are a real bargain and she responds in a hurry!

EVERY SUMMER SHOE GOES!

Paul's
First-class
Shoes
59 Whitehall

The Ford is a strong and capable truck

WHEREVER there is material of any kind to be hauled, you are likely to see Ford trucks at work. You will find them at many a shipping-platform, or meet them on the way. And see them climbing ramps, out of excavations.

You will notice Ford trucks where business is swift . . . and in rural sections, where strict economy often dictates the type of transportation. For the Ford truck is excellently adapted to a wide variety of purposes.

A number of new features increase the usefulness of the Ford truck, adding as well to its capable performance and rugged strength. Among them are the spiral-bevel-gear rear axle; the two optional gear-ratios; the larger brakes; the heavier front axle and spring; the 4-speed transmission, and the dual rear wheels available at small additional cost.

Standard bodies for the Ford truck, which are the panel, stake, and platform, are mounted on the chassis with 131½" wheelbase. A chassis with 157" wheelbase is available for carrying light but bulky loads.

Bodies are strong and good-looking, with loading space of carefully planned dimensions. The stake and platform types can be equipped with either open or enclosed cabs. Go to your Ford dealer, and learn how long and well, and at what low cost, the Ford truck will serve your purpose.

Lumber..

A Great Industry that Nature Gave to Georgia

Georgia's widespread timber lands produce annually 1,500,000,000 board feet of lumber; 20,000,000 shingles; 11,000,000 feet of veneers and many millions more feet in staves, barrel headings and other products. The approximate value of these products is $27,000,000 a year.

The lumber industry, like other great Georgia enterprises, finds at the Citizens and Southern National a thorough understanding of its problems, and the ability to handle them.

CITIZENS & SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

ATHENS
MACON

ATLANTA
SAVANNAH

AUGUSTA
VALDOSTA

NO ACCOUNT TOO LARGE, NONE TOO SMALL

BOBBY JONES

ALL ATLANTA WELCOMES YOU HOME

Bobby Jones comes home today.

There is a thrill in that for thousands of Atlantans.

Bobby Jones, a fine citizen and the world's greatest athlete, is coming home to Atlanta and the people who love him best.

Old emperors came home with captives groaning at their chariot wheels.

Bobby Jones comes home with the admiration and love of millions who but a few short hours ago were waiting breathlessly to hear what he would do.

With him he brings three major championships---the British amateur, the British open and the National open.

No other golfer in all the world has ever done that before. It is unlikely that another ever will again, unless it is this same Bobby Jones.

Atlanta loves him best, but it is a love and an admiration which must be shared, for such is the fineness of the man that he has captured the admiration of all.

It is a privilege for Atlanta to welcome and congratulate him today---

Bobby Jones, the greatest athlete and a great citizen.

A hearty congratulation and greeting of welcome---in behalf of all Atlanta---is extended by the following admiring firms

Reo Sales & Service, Inc.
Hotel Georgian Terrace
First National Bank
Geo. Muse Clothing Co.
Citizens & Southern National Bank

Spratlin, Harrington & Thomas
Fulton National Bank
Morris Plan Co. of Ga.
Hirsch Bros.
Parks-Chambers, Inc.
Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

Duffee-Freeman Furniture Co.
King Hardware Co.
Hopkins Equipment Co.
Yancey Bros., Inc.
Yancey-Reid Co.

"A population of 500,000 by 1932" is Atlanta's slogan. Let's all pull together for a Greater Atlanta.

The Constitution's Weekly Business Review

EDITED BY M. D. GLEASON

There is hardly a need or a want that cannot be filled in Atlanta's stores and factories.

LAST CALL---Summer Is Here!

You Can't Get Around Facts

And these are the facts—good old summertime is here, and here to stay until winter. Our "Style-Bilt" awnings are so inexpensive that they will absolutely render a sufficiency of comfort to pay for the installation in a week's time. Call us quick and let us show you how quickly and beautifully we can execute the work.

Atlanta Tent & Awning Co.

The South's Largest Awning Builders

Phones: Calhoun
1483-1484

Factory and Office
East Point, Ga.

We'll Be Waiting For Your Call

SHOWERS

Heads $1.20 and up. Valves 75c and up. Largest variety of shower parts in the South. Write or call for our shower circular.

Pickert Plumbing Supply Co.
197 Central Ave., S. W.

THOS. F. SEITZINGER'S SONS

SMELTERS AND REFINERS

New and Old Metals

Brass, Bronze and Aluminum Castings

900 Ashby St., N. W.

Tel. HE. 4013-4014

THE New Junior
Oil-O-Matic provides greatest economy and uniform heat in all seasons for medium-sized homes.

WILLIAMS OIL-O-MATIC HEATING

RANDALL BROS., INC.
FUEL OIL DEPT.

2158 Piedmont Ave. Phone HE. 9840-5132
Authorized Oil-O-Matic Dealer

Beautiful home of
Geo. D. Elyea,
1710 N. Peacham
Road, equipped with Oil-O-Matic.

White Provision Co.

Call us for Georgia Products. Sell us your Live Stock. We pay high est market prices.
PHONE HEMLOCK 6100
ATLANTA, GA.

C. J. ROSS DAIRY

Grade A Raw Milk
Phone WE. 0041
Route 1, Cascade Road,
Atlanta, Ga.

"FRICK TRACTOR SPECIAL"

The Improved No. 00
Saw Mill

Yielding to the increasing demand for a low-priced practical mill suitable for the Fordson and larger tractors, we have designed and now offer for your consideration, our latest addition to the well-known FRICK line of machinery—the "TRACTOR SPECIAL." It is of light weight, strongly built, and moved from set to set with little labor and small expense. Where sets are small and moves are frequent, overhead expenses eat up profits with the use of a large, cumbersome outfit. You can save the greater part of this expense by the use of the FRICK "TRACTOR SPECIAL."

FRICK COMPANY, Inc.
WANESBORO, PA. 83 FORSYTH ST., S. W., ATLANTA, GA.

ASK FOR GARDNER PRODUCTS

Gardner's, Gardner's Peanut Butter, Gardner's Peanut Butter Sandwiches, Gardner's De Luxe Potato Chips, all healthful, nutritious foods packed in a clean factory by particular people. Mail, express and 65 trucks deliver them in all southeastern states.

General Offices and Plant 441 Marietta St., N. W., Atlanta, Ga.
Local and Long Distance Phone JACKSON 1798

ODOM BROS. AUTO PARTS CO.

Automobile and Truck Parts
Cylinder Rebuilding
Main Bearing Line Boring
PROMPT SERVICE
Phone JACKSON 4888-4887
417-19 Edgewood Ave., N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

HART'S

TEA & CAKE SHOP
We Serve Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner in Our Tea Room
OPEN SUNDAYS
1033 Peachtree St., N. E.
HE. 4887

Burford, Hall & Smith

Power Plants and Power Plant Equipment
Pumping Machinery
Phone WALNUT 8890
Red Rock Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Cascade Terrace

FAMOUS FOR THEIR
CHICKEN DINNERS
MUSIC AND DANCING
Phone WE. 4064 CASCADE ROAD

Service a Certainty—Ask Our Customers.
JACKSON 4437

BOHLER & SHACKLEFORD

COMPLETE AUTOMOBILE SERVICE
21-23 BAKER ST., N. W.
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

JESSE M. BOHLER T. A. (SHACK) SHACKLEFORD

Hot Summer--- Cold Winter, Says Coal Man

There is an old saying that the hotter the summer the colder the following winter, says W. D. Hardaway, one of Atlanta's pioneer coal men, and if this extreme hot weather is to be followed by extreme cold weather next winter, the wise man will put in his coal supply while the lowest summer prices are on.

"We never were more interested in getting new customers than we are this year," he continued, "and it is because we want Atlanta people to try this new Pocahontas coal we are receiving from the West Virginia fields.
This brand of coal is very popular in the Virginias, Maryland and Pennsylvania."

"At this season we are on the same footing as the dealers that live closer to the Pocahontas mines, and we get a low price that justifies us in competing with this brand of coal in this territory. But with the first frost dealers nearer to them want big orders filled in a hurry and the price increases."

"By buying now a saving of about 20 per cent is possible over a period of 60 or 70 days. In the matter of deliveries and convenience for their customers the Hardaway Coal Company has three yards, one across from the state capital on Capitol avenue,
one at 834 Lee street at McCall's Crossing and one at 1165 Bankhead avenue across from Maddox Park."

Company Specializes Hauling Big Freight

The Southern Transfer Company specializes in hauling heavy machinery or freight. The company has men and telephones in all the leading freight offices and they look over all the way bills of each car unloaded.
If it contains freight for any of their customers they direct that it be loaded on one of their trucks and then they pay the freight charges and deliver it to their customer saving usually 24 hours' time.

Under the Southern Transfer Company's way of doing business, its customers have no worry of running or telephoning to the freight house every little while for a shipment. All they have to do is to notify the Southern Transfer man who is on the job to look out for the shipment and this he does and gets it over to them in a few minutes after it is unloaded.
The managers of the Southern Transfer Company have been in this line of business for more than 30 years and with this long experience and more than 20 large trucks and drays, have the equipment to haul anything that can be loaded on a freight car.

P. E. Pierce Operates Dairy Near Chamblee

One of the progressive dairymen around Atlanta is P. E. Pierce, who has a large farm near Chamblee, Ga.
His large barns, well-fed cows, clean, cold milk houses, fine water supply and good pastures impress all visitors that he has a splendid dairy surrounded by pleasant environments.
Doctors agree that pure milk contains many of the vitamins necessary for the healthy growth of children and it helps develop the health and vigor of the adults. Pure milk is a valuable supplement to nearly all staple foods and is always ready to serve.

NEW IMPROVED VENTILATOR

Also manufacturers of Knox Ever-tite Flashing Lock and Metal Products.
R. F. KNOX METAL CO.
676 MARIETTA ST. JACKSON 5785

Southern Transfer Co.

Established 1911
Automobile Trucks and Wagons
Main Office: 800 E. 7th St., Freight Depot, Spring and Nelson Sts.
Phone MAIN 3446-3447

KAYE-SAUSSY, Inc.

Home Modernizers
Wallpapering, Decorating, Roofing, Painting and Carpenter Work
HE. 9510 32 Fifth St., N. W.

YBERT PRINTING

BEST SERVICE AND PRICES
311-313 EDGEMOOR AVE.
Atlanta, Ga. Phone JA. 3317

YORK'S RECREATION PARLOR

FINEST BILLIARD ROOM
IN THE SOUTH
23 Pocket Billiard Tables, 4 Carom
Billiard Tables, Merchants' Lunches,
Soft Drinks.
117 N. PRYOR ST.
Opp. Cedar Bldg.
ROBT. L. YORK, Proprietor

Uncomfortable Mattresses Interfere With Good Sleep

The long spell of hot weather is interfering with many people in getting a good night's sleep, and lack of sleep has much to do with a person's health and temperament. A lumpy or hard mattress will also do much to spoil a good night's rest and especially in hot weather.

The Superior Mattress Company of 835 Bankhead avenue, N. W., can not control the hot weather, but it can turn an old, soiled bumpy mattress into a clean, sweet-smelling one that will permit of a good night's sleep.

The complete change this firm can make in an old, soiled or poor mattress amazes and astonishes most housewives, boarding house and hotel managers the first time they have one renovated by this company. It is the many pleased customers who speak so highly of the company and their repeat business that enables this firm to make steady progress every year.

There are but few operations in renovating a mattress and there is only one way to do and that is to do it right. But to do it right you must have experience and good equipment, and the men composing the Superior Mattress Company have had 11 and 12 years' experience, and the right equipment to enable them to get an old, apparently worthless looking mattress in the morning and return it looking like new before bedtime.

Week Sees France and Italy Draw Nearer Naval Parley

Britain and France Also See Internal Parliamen- tary Disturbance With Cabinets Winning.

BY ALEXANDER H. UHL,
Associated Press Cable Editor.

Despite the present disagreement between France and Italy over the question of their respective navies, plans for further discussion of Foreign Minister Briand's proposal for a European federation went ahead during the week and it seemed likely definite reactions from most of the European states would be in hand before long.

It is on the relations between France and Italy that European statesmen have centered much attention in recent years and the past week saw several important developments which probably will have considerable weight in the formulation of European relations in the future.
In the first place Italy's reply to Briand's European federation proposal raised the question of revision of treaties, a factor that also entered into the German and Hungarian replies. In French circles it was felt this allusion of the three powers to dissatisfaction with the post-war treaties could be straightened out should a large majority of European states signify their desire to join a large European union helpful to all.

The Italian reply expressed Italy's willingness to join in discussion of the Briand plan but laid down certain principles which Italy believes should be adhered to. These included invitations to Russia and Turkey and the Italian contention that it would be unwise to place the concept of security as the basis for a European union.

Foundation.
Italy also held that disarmament was the foundation of security which differs from the traditional French attitude that security should be the basis of disarmament.

In general the answers thus far received by France have indicated a certain dissatisfaction among certain of the European countries with the war settlements and at the same time determination that nothing must impair the authority of the League of Nations.

About half of the 26 nations which received the Briand proposals have replied or have dispatched answers and the rest are expected to do so shortly.

A second important development in the relations between France and Italy was the announcement by Foreign Minister Briand that France would suspend all new naval building until December with the idea of making it easier for France and Italy to go ahead with naval negotiations as between themselves so as to reach some kind of an agreement. France and Italy failed of agreement at the London naval conference and efforts to reach a settlement have been talked of ever since.

The foreign minister made a point of saying that "another war in Europe is impossible and inadmissible"
—thus answering war scare talk that had been cropping up in various quarters.

In French circles the foreign minister's announcement was looked upon as a clear-cut gesture of friendliness in an effort to reach an agreement with Italy. In Rome there was some doubt expressed as to whether it had gone far enough to match the Italian offer of indefinite suspension of the 1930 program.

While Great Britain, Japan and the United States have reached an agreement among themselves, the French and Italian situation is of the greatest importance, since the three-power agreement has a "safety clause" by which heavy building on the part of any power outside of the agreement would permit additional building by the big naval powers.

Home Troubles.
While international developments came thick and fast, both the French and British governments were having their troubles with the opposition at home. In Great Britain, Ramsay Macdonald managed to pull out a two-vote victory on an amendment to the finance bill. It was a dramatic struggle and only the fact that several liberals voted for the government prevented a government defeat. However, none of the political parties seem keen for a dissolution of parliament and a new election and it seemed likely that the laborite ministry would survive the summer.

In France, the socialists pitched into the Tardieu government with inter-pellations, but the government had little difficulty gaining a vote of confidence and Tardieu skillfully ended the sessions, which means that the cabinet will continue in power at least until October, when parliament reassem-
bles.

Viceroy Irwin, in India, addressing the Indian legislature, made a speech that puzzled the British press somewhat. He said the coming roundtable conference in London on Indian affairs would have a free hand and that the recent Simon report would merely serve as a valuable guide. He also reiterated dominion status as the ultimate Indian goal. His address served to placate some Indian opinion although the nationalists still refused to accept it as satisfactory.

During the week Cardinal Vanu-telli, dean of the college of cardinals, died at the age of 93. Another world-known figure to pass on was Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, famous creator of Sherlock Holmes and widely known for his belief in spiritualism. The Doyle family confidently expects some message from Sir Arthur.
General Friedrich von Bernhardi, widely known in the United States as a preacher of militarism and for his book, "Germany and the Next War," died at the age of 81.

CLOW GASTHEAM HEATING SYSTEMS

Steam Heat With Natural Gas

140 WALKER ST., S. W. MA. 3271

TAKE YOUR VACATION ON BRUNSWICK TIRES

They are guaranteed 16,000 miles and all our customers tell us that they are the most satisfactory tires they ever bought.

We have received another lot of
GARDEN HOSE
We are buying this garden hose in large quantities and can sell it to you for 6½ cents a foot, all lengths.
Buy at our store that is most convenient to you.

Golden Eagle Co.

741 MARIETTA STREET 245 PETERS STREET

Court Square, Decatur

Broadway at Poplar, Macon Market & Wall Sts., Cartersville

24 South Bradford St., Gainesville

Henry F. Whitner James T. Whitner Chas. F. Whitner, Jr.

WHITNER & COMPANY

INSURANCE—LOANS—BONDS

Oldest Agency in Atlanta—Established 1866 601 Grant Building

Rex No. 5 Saw Rig

Has all these features: (1) Tilting table.
(2) Straight line cut-off. (3) Cut under frame. (4) Three or eight H. P. automotive engine. (5) Engine under table. (6)
Radiators equipped. (7) Portability. (8)
Twenty-eight inches wide.

YANCEY BROS., Inc.

Telephone MAin 3964 634 Whitehall St., S. W.

"Caterpillar" Tractors—Road Building Machinery
Contractors' Equipment

Bohler & Shackleford Repair Numerous Cars

More than 600 repair jobs have been turned out at the automobile service station of Bohler & Shackle-ford, located at 21 Baker street, N.
E., during the past 60 days. It is reported by the management. This company is headed by Jesse Bohler and M. S. Shackleford, two experts who have seen long and varied service in private car and truck work and they are prepared in emergencies to render a 24-hour service to fleet owners of trucks as well as to all others who do not wish to be without their car but a few hours.

"We are ready and prepared," says
Mr. Bohler, "to do any kind of rush repair work on automobiles, and can turn out a job as soon as is consistent with guaranteed work."

Injured Flier Left In Burman Jungles

RANGOON, Burma, July 13.—(AP)
Advices received here from Prom-Burma, today said Eric Hook, companion of "Jimmy" Matthews in an attempted flight from England to Australia, still is missing in the Burmese jungle.

Matthews reached home yesterday and reported he had been forced to leave Hook behind in what he believed was a dying condition. Matthews was picked up by villagers on the eastern slope of the Arkan Yoma mountain range.

For seven days he and Hook had been following the course of a mountain stream. Their airplane crashed on the east side of the Yomas.

Matthews said the crash was caused by a leak in the gasoline pipe.
Both aviators were injured, Hook more severely than Matthews.

Young Firebug Sought In Drug Store Blazes

Police Sunday night were investigating reports that a youthful firebug early Sunday morning was seen to ignite the awnings of two Highland avenue drug stores, causing blazes that resulted in small damage.

While firemen from engine companies Nos. 12 and 19 were extinguishing flames at the James and Barrett drug store, 465 Highland avenue, shortly after 2:30 a. m., it was reported to them that an awning of the San Juan Drug Store at 525
Highland was ablaze.

Police Patrolmen A. D. Poole and J. D. Morrow were furnished a description of a youth, apparently about 20 years old, who is alleged to have fired the stores.

Cuba Asks General To Explain Interview

SAN JUAN, July 13.—(AP)—The Cuban department of war and marine has called Brigadier General Jose Semidney Rodriguez, quartermaster general of the Cuban army, to account for an interview published in the newspapers here which quoted him as advocating Porto Rican independence.
It was disclosed today when he responded to the interview.

General Rodriguez, a native Porto Rican, said he fought side by side with American soldiers in the Spanish-American war, and has a high regard for the United States.
He said he would start back to Cuba after a week's vacation here.

ENVELOPE HEADQUARTERS

EVERY size and type of commercial envelope is made here
—made of the correct paper stock,
with corners that fit and flaps that stick. Speedy service, too. It'll pay you to make this your "Envelope Headquarters."

"Good Envelopes Are Just Good Business"

ATLANTA ENVELOPE CO.

605-7-9-11 Stewart Ave., S. W.
ATLANTA
PHONE MAIN 3370

PAY YOUR TAXES

Do You Need Help?
THE INTERSTATE BOND
CO. OF ATLANTA

Assists taxpayers by financing the payment of your city, state and county taxes. Easy and convenient plan. No personal endowment required. Special terms on items over $500.00.

Head Office

314 Candler Bldg., ATLANTA, GA.

Correspondents at numerous points in Georgia.

BOULDER CREST NURSERIES

Landscaping
Rock Gardens
Lily Pools
Roses

Select your next season's roses
now from our rose display garden

Nursery, E. Atlanta, Ga.

Office, 157 Forrest Ave., N. E.

*Phone for information.

ZABAN

STORAGE COMPANY
WAL. 2701

DEPENDABLE!

WHEN YOU RE-ROOF, LAY

Bird's Roofing

Right over the old shingles
"Save Money and Gain Warmth"

MILLER LUMBER CO.

1171 Ridge Ave., S. W. Phone MAin 3156

Knight-Luttrell Iron Company

Incorporated
Scrap Iron, Metals and Rubber
972 Avon Ave., S. W. Atlanta, Ga. Telephone WE. 0200

Colonial Bread

for quality - flavor - texture - freshness

ASK YOUR GROCER!

LEE BAKING COMPANY

A. B. Lee, President 211 Moreland, N. E.

ATLANTA HATCHERY

Baby Chicks—Custom Hatching
Barred Rocks Rhode Island Reds
White Rocks White Leghorns
DEARERS 1511 1952 Dekalb Ave., at Kirkwood
ATLANTA, GA.

AUSTIN BROS. BRIDGE CO.

STRUCTURAL STEEL
FOR ALL PURPOSES
Reinforcing Rods—Bridges

Offices and Plant
Opposite
Fl. McPherson
Atlanta, Ga. Telephone
WE. 2200

W. J. BROWNLEE W. W. LIVERY

BROWNLEE & LIVERY

GEORGIA, ALABAMA STRUCK BY STORM

Cyclone Hits Salem, Ala., Tearing Down Trees and Buildings.

MACON, Ga., July 13.—(P)—The dispatcher's office of the Central of Georgia railroad was advised here tonight that a cyclone hit Salem, Ala., tonight and had blown down trees and buildings, tearing one house down and carrying it onto the railroad tracks. Salem is about 15 miles west of Columbus on the Birmingham division of the Central. All wires have been lost between here and Columbus.

Tonight the electrical storm became general over Georgia and Alabama, telegraph and telephone companies experiencing a great amount of the trouble. Railroads also reported that lightning was interfering with operation of signals.

While rains were not general, they extended in spots between Macon and Athens and between Macon and Atlanta.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY HELD IN WAYCROSS

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—A Sunday school rally was held at Calvary Baptist church of Waycross Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with devotionals by C. M. Hart.

"Why Have a Sunday School?" was discussed by John R. Glenn, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. "How To Build Up a Sunday School Class" was discussed by Mrs. W. J. Sumnerall; Rev. William J. Carwell spoke on "The Relationship of Sunday School to the Church," and Mrs. Walter E. Eaton spoke on "How To Hold a Sunday School Class Together."

Special music was offered by Alva Williford and Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs.

State Deaths And Funerals

L. D. GAY.
DAWSON, Ga., July 13.—Lewis D. Gay, 70, well known and esteemed citizen of the Dawson community, six miles southwest of Dawson, died suddenly at his home about 10 o'clock Saturday night. He was a native of Quitman county, Georgia, but had resided in Dawson since 1892. For a number of years he was a justice of the peace in the Dawson district. He was a Mason, and a member of the Baptist church. Mrs. Gay died about two years ago. Surviving are five nephews, Will Gay, of Terrell county; Grover Wilkins, of Ft. Gaines, Ga.; Ray Wilkins, of Arlington, Ga.; Clarence Wilkins, of Dothan, Ala.; and Ed Gay, of Cordova, Ala. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

FUNERAL OF M. M. BLANTON.
VALDOSTA, Ga., July 13.—Funeral services were held from the New Hope church, near Taylor, Sunday afternoon for Mose M. Blanton, prominent farmer and landowner of Lowndes county.

Mr. Blanton suffered an attack of acute indigestion during Friday night and died Saturday morning. Besides his widow, he is survived by the following children: Debra Blanton, Tampa, Fla.; Claude Blanton, Roy Blanton, Huger Blanton and Ben Blanton, all of Lowndes county, and the following brothers: Dr. Ira Blanton, of Sanders county; Henry Blanton, Miami, Fla.; and John Blanton, Florida.

J. E. GLAWSON, 60, DIES IN MILLEDGEVILLE

BRADLEY, Ga., July 13.—(P)—J. E. Glawson, 60, one of the best known men in Jones county, died at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in a hospital in Milledgeville.

Mr. Glawson was a brother of Charles Glawson, who died a few months ago. He was born and reared in Jones county and had been engaged in farming and peach growing here for many years.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Gray, and of Al Sihan temple of the Shrine in Macon.

Besides his widow he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. G. L. Anderson and Mrs. R. B. Hudson, of Gray, and Miss Thelma Glawson, of Bradley; three sisters, Mrs. S. B. Hangerford, of Gray; Mrs. A. B. Roberts, of Birmingham; Mrs. S. H. Thornton, of Jackson, Ga.

The funeral will be held at the Bradley Baptist church Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the service to be conducted by Rev. J. J. Bennett, Rev. E. W. Sammons and Rev. T. H. Maxwell. Interment will be in the Glawson cemetery.

HULSEYS FACE TRIAL IN TRIPLE MURDER

Father and Son To Answer Charge at Cedartown Today.

CEDARTOWN, Ga., July 13.—(P)—Solicitor-General S. W. Ragsdale of the Tallapoosa circuit announced here today that William Hulse and his son, Fred, will go on trial at a special term of court here tomorrow charged with the murder of three young men whose mutilated bodies were found in an abandoned well near Rockmart June 20.

They were indicted Friday at a special term of the grand jury, which grand jury will meet again tomorrow to consider the cases of William Hulse's other son, Ray, his son-in-law, Tom Hicks, and E. McCullough, who have been held in jail with the others since the inquest over the three bodies.

The men slain were Cliff Jones, Lige Harper and Ernest McCullough, who was not related to L. E. McCullough.

Ragsdale said he did not expect the grand jury to charge Ray Hulse, Hicks and L. E. McCullough with anything more serious than being accessories to the slaying.

Testimony was introduced at the inquest to show that William and Fred Hulse, said by police to be professional gamblers, invited the three men to their home on June 18 for a drinking and gambling party. The money, however, was won by the visitors. No testimony as to the actual slaying was adduced but officers said their investigation showed Ernest McCullough and Jones probably were shot to death as they sat on the ground playing. They said they believed Harper was slain when he came back to the place after the slaying, and learned that his companions had been killed.

Officers said they had found blood stains on a wagon at the Hulse place, that the bed of the wagon recently had been destroyed, and that the wagon's wheels fit tracks leading from the well in which the bodies were found.

Witnesses at the inquest also quoted Hicks as saying Fred Hulse told him he had "already killed three men."

THOMAS COUNTY BOARD CALLS TWO ELECTIONS

THOMASVILLE, Ga., July 13.—The Thomas county board of education has called two elections for July 19 in the interest of schools. Residents of the McDraw district will vote to determine whether that district shall consolidate with the Pavo school district.

On August 2 there will be an election in the Little Flock district on an issue which would authorize a special tax for school purposes. The Little Flock district was only created by the county board during the present month, and the election is called on petition of citizens there.

Highway Work Begun.
Work has been started on Florida highway 19. The road will run from Erie, Pa., via Thomasville, Tallahassee and Perry to St. Petersburg, Fla. From Thomasville via Tallahassee to Perry is a distance of 95 miles. But there is a cut-off from Thomasville via Monticello, Fla., to Perry that is only 65 miles—a saving of 30 miles travel.

All that is needed to perfect that cut-off is for the Georgia highway board to pave the 12 miles from Thomasville to the Georgia-Florida state line, 9 miles north of Monticello. The Florida road department is to let contract to pave from the state line, through Monticello, to the junction with this highway No. 19, on July 15.

Will Attend Masonic Meet.
A big delegation of Masons will go from Thomasville on July 16 to attend the second district Masonic convention in Doerun.

The convention will be opened at 10 a. m. by the Doerun lodge, and will be turned over to the worshipful master of the second district, O. J. Johnson, of Moultrie, at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. A. W. Dick, pastor of the Moultrie Presbyterian church, will make the welcoming address, and W. J. Penn, Jr., of Albany, will respond. At noon the delegates will be addressed by Past Grand Master Charles L. Bass, and at 2:45 p. m. Most Worshipful Grand Master Hugh Taylor, of Culbert, will make an address.

Announces Candidacy.
Judge William H. Thomas, of Valdosta, has announced as a candidate to succeed himself as judge of the southern judicial circuit, in the democratic primary election to be held September 10. Judge Thomas will, this year, complete 24 years of service as judge of this circuit, and is unopposed in the race to succeed himself.

Will Serve Terms.
D. C. Phinazee and Sam Norris, convicted in June, in Thomas superior court, of aiding in an attempted escape from Thomas county jail at Pearl Belote, will serve their prison terms. Phinazee got a one-year sentence and Sam Norris a sentence of one year minimum and one year maximum.

Both appealed then decided to withdraw appeals and serve their time. The warden from Early county came here Friday with requisition for the men from the prison commission and took them away Sunday.

Meanwhile the supreme court of Georgia has refused the appeal in behalf of Pearl Belote, convicted of attacking and shooting at the wife of Sam Norris, and she must also serve her sentence of five years in the penitentiary. She was recently removed from Thomas county jail to the county jail in Moultrie.

Banks Issue Statements.
Statements of condition of banks in Thomas county, just issued, indicate deposits slightly in excess of $3,000,000. The four banks in the town of Thomasville show deposits of $2,684,616, the remainder of the county deposits being divided among banks in the smaller towns, Pavo, Ochlocknee, Barwick, Coolidge and Meigs.

Patrol Headquarters Unchanged.
Headquarters of the border patrol, United States immigration service for this district, which have been for some time located at Tallahassee, Fla., were recently moved to Perry, Fla., 65 miles southeast of Thomasville. Readjustment of the district lines was said to have made Perry a more central point. Now the announcement is made that the proposed headquarters to Perry has been abandoned, and the headquarters will remain in Tallahassee. Territory of the district will extend from the St. Lawrence river on the east to the Appalachian river on the west.

Georgia News Told in Brief

Arrived and Sailed.
Savannah, Ga., July 13.—(P)—Arrived, Silverview, British, Norfolk, and sailed for Far East.
Sailed: City of Birmingham, New York.

Home Demonstration Work.
WOODBINE, Ga., July 13.—The commissioners of Camden county have made an appropriation of $50 a month for the continuance of home demonstration work in the county. The appropriation is contingent on the board of education appropriating the same amount.

Power Engine Installed.
FOLKSTON, Ga., July 13.—The Georgia Power and Light Company, of Waycross, who recently purchased the electric plant here, is now installing a new engine and power unit. The new engine is to take care of reserve power in the event of an interruption.

Water Supply Change Sought.
FOLKSTON, Ga., July 13.—A petition has been presented the mayor and aldermen of Folkston requesting that the city water supply be obtained from its former source—a well at the power plant. Action on the petition has been deferred as the city officials believe the present condition will clear up. The water being used has been analyzed by the state and found pure and free from contamination.

Hacksaw Found in Jail.
VALDOSTA, Ga., July 13.—According to reports reaching this city, Sheriff Lee, of Clinch county, frustrated a probable attempt at jail delivery during the week. In company with other officers the sheriff made a search of the jail at Homerville and found several hacksaws and a crowbar.

Prize Tomatoes.
WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—Two prize tomatoes, weighing 2 pounds and 11 ounces, are being exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook, the tomatoes having been grown in a "back-yard garden" at their home, 808 Lewis street, in Gilchrist Park.

"They're just plain, ordinary tomatoes, except they're bigger than any I've ever seen," Mr. Cook states.

Both grew on one stalk.

Conducts Church Series.
WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—John R. Glenn, secretary of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Y. M. C. A. at Waycross, conducted services at the First Christian church here Sunday morning, in the absence of the Rev. Charles S. Van Winkle, pastor, who is attending the annual Young People's Conference of the Christian Church of Georgia at Toccoa Falls.

WATERMELON SEASON CLOSES NEXT WEEK

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 13.—It is expected that the melon shipping season in this particular section of south Georgia will quickly taper off to an end during the next week, when it is believed comparatively few cars will be loaded.

J. J. Parrish, general manager of the Sogewas Melon Association, however, predicts that the association's melon shipping season will continue three weeks longer, the territory being considerably above Macon, and from which no melons have yet been shipped.

In summing up the business for the season up to date, Mr. Parrish says this has been the most hectic season in the 10 years' history of Sogewas, and it has established records heretofore unheard of in melon annuals. From a monetary standpoint it has been far from satisfactory to growers, but Mr. Parrish states that the more than 3,000 members of the association will find at the end of the year that they have received better returns than any equal number of

Hit by Switch Engine Woman Slightly Hurt

Mrs. Ora Hammett, of 851 Bedford avenue, N. W., was slightly injured late Sunday night when she was struck down by a railroad switch engine which was backing out of the A. B. & C. yards on Oliver street. She was rushed to a private hospital for treatment.

growers who have operated outside of Sogewas.

During the trying days of the 1930 season sales facts show that the well established brand of Sogewas, with which every association melon is labeled, has had an extra cash value.

This was proven in the Fourth of July trade when large chain store organizations bought 178 cars of melons for the holiday business in New York City. When the Sogewas arrived they were advertised in 32 metropolitan papers as Sogewas, with an attractive sales price.

A rival organization, buying from independents countered with advertising and setting prices 20 cents per melon less than Sogewas. Only July 3 the Sogewas chain confiscated 10 additional cars to supply belated trade at its established price, while the rival organization failed utterly to sell its original purchase, having large quantities left on hand.

SOUTHEAST GEORGIA 4-H CLUB CAMP HELD

Ware, Charlton and Brantley Counties Represented at Crystal Springs.

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—Four-H Club boys and girls of three southeast Georgia counties attended the first 4-H Club camp ever held in southeast Georgia, which closed Saturday at Crystal Springs, under the direction of A. B. Hursey, county agent of Charlton county.

Ware, Charlton and Brantley counties were represented in the camp enrollment.

Approximately 100 campers enjoyed the week's educational program, leaders of state prominence assisting in the instruction work. Among the leaders were Dr. John R. Fain, head of the agronomy department of the State College of Agriculture; G. V. Cunningham, state boys' club agent; K. S. Trobridge, state forestry specialist; R. J. Richardson, poultry specialist of the Georgia State College of Agriculture; Byron L. Southwell, animal husbandman of the State college at Tifton.

Among the girls' leaders were Miss Emeline Jones, of Blackshear; Miss Day, teacher of home economics of Madison, Ga.; Miss Louise Brockman, of Folkston, and Miss Lizzie Knox, of Folkston.

County Agent L. V. Cawley, of Brantley county, was accompanied by the first annual encampment by a large delegation of club boys and girls from the Hoboken and Nahant sections, and a Ware county delegation was carried to Crystal Springs by Royal Walden, Ware county treasurer.

Dr. R. J. Heyde, Ware county agent, also attended the camp for a short time.

The program was pronounced one of the finest ever offered in the state, and Mr. Hursey is being urged to conduct the camp again next year.

WILL CLANTON AWAITS TRIAL FOR MURDER

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 13.—Will Clanton, of Lanier county, charged with murder in connection with the killing of former Sheriff Lige Turner, of Lanier county, has been remanded to jail to await trial.

Tucker was killed in the home of his former wife, Clanton's sister. Clanton claims that Tucker went to his sister's home in a drunken condition and was threatening her, when he fired through a window.

DOUBLE RITES HELD FOR MOTHER, INFANT

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—A double funeral for Mrs. B. F. Minchew, 37, and an infant daughter, was held Sunday at Ben James church in Pierce county. The infant died in Waycross Friday followed by the death of the mother Saturday.

Mrs. Minchew is survived by her husband of this city, one brother, Nicholls Riggin of Pierce county, and four daughters, Mrs. Cassie Dixon, of Waycross; Mrs. Zoie Dixon, of Pierce county; Mrs. Lem Strickland, of Pierce county, and Mrs. Nancy Walker, of Blackshear.

ALLEGED ROBBER SHOT NEAR MACON

MACON, Ga., July 12.—(P)—W. F. Bell, proprietor of two tourist camps on the Houston road, told county officers late tonight that he had fired on an automobile that tried to run over his wife, after robbing his camp, and refused to stop when he commanded the driver to do so. He said one of the men had a pistol in his hand as the car sped by.

A short time later R. B. Hendon, Macon salesman for a yeast company, was admitted to a local hospital, shot in the spine and paralyzed from the wound.

Sheriff's deputies a few minutes later arrested H. L. Payne, former baker, whom they said was Hendon's partner, accused of attempted robbery. Two women in the automobile escaped.

The party had been at Bell's camp at Echeconnee creek on a fishing trip. Leaving they were accused of taking considerable plunder from the camp. Mrs. Bell proceeded to the other Bell camp, nearer the city, reaching there ahead of the party. She told her husband what had happened and then stood in the highway to identify the car, while Bell waited a short distance before to stop them at the point of a gun.

SALVATION ARMY OPENS NEW WAYCROSS CHAPEL

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 13.—The formal opening of the Salvation Army chapel which has just been established at 510 Plant avenue, was held Sunday night at 8 o'clock, special services being led by the Waycross Businessmen's Evangelistic Club.

Ensign Charles Johnson points out that the manual training shop and the transient men's dormitory will be maintained at 620 Plant avenue, where chapel exercises and services have been held in the past.

JACKSON TO BE HOST TO STATE KIWANIS

Preparations Under Way for Convention September 15-17.

JACKSON, Ga., July 13.—Delegations from the Kiwanis Club of Jackson are visiting clubs throughout middle Georgia in the interest of the Georgia district convention, Kiwanis International, which will be held at Jackson, September 15, 16 and 17. So far 14 meetings have been held in various cities of the state.

Joint meetings were held this week with the Marshallville Club, the Manchester Club and the Lawrenceville Club. The Lawrenceville meeting consisted of an interclub party in the nature of a picnic-barbecue at Sweetwater park, at which representatives were present from Atlanta, Athens, Commerce, Cornelia, Elberton, Gainesville, Hartwell, Madison, Monroe, Toccoa, Winder and Jackson.

Preparations are being made by the Jackson Club to handle what bids fair to be the greatest convention the Georgia district has ever held.

For several years the convention has been held in the larger cities around the edge of the state, and the location at Jackson so nearly the center of the state, is considered ideal from the standpoint of attendance by representatives of the 62 clubs in the state.

COACH EXCURSION FARES

Between all stations Southeastern territory: tickets on sale every Friday, Saturday and Sunday until August 31.

Round-trip fares computed:
One-way fare plus 10%, good 15 days.
One-way fare plus 25%, good 30 days.

Travel by Train—Safer
—More Economical
Ask Ticket Agent for Further Information.

Central of Georgia Railway

We join Atlanta in a hearty welcome to
Bobby Jones
—a real golfer, a splendid citizen and a genuine good fellow.

ZACHRY
87 Peachtree St.

Mountain Vacations

Pacific Coast
Rocky Mountains
National Parks
New England

SPLENDID SERVICE IS OFFERED by the

Louisville & Nashville R. R. on the superb trains

THE FLAMINGO
THE SOUTHLAND

Observation cars—Dining car service of superior excellence

Reduced round trip fares; liberal stop-over privileges
L. & N. trains leave Atlanta 7:50 a.m., 3:25 p.m. and 6:15 p.m.

Sixty-day variable tours daily to New York and Boston, going one route and returning another.

Plan your vacation trip early and let us assist you in working out the details as to routes, fares, sleeping car reservations, etc.

F. T. ALEXANDER, Div. Pass'r. Agt.
MARTIN KINZEL, City Pass'r. Agt.
101 Marietta St., Atlanta Phone Walnut 1446

A Sensational Saving

Clearance Sale

Prices Slashed on Leading Make, First Grade Tires to Clear Out Broken Sets and Lines

OUR previous Clearance Sales have made Bargain History. Here's the greatest yet. Our new-car change-over business on Generals has been bigger than ever this spring. We have ordered huge stocks of the remarkable new Blowout-Proof General Tire and must have room. All the other makes must go and we have slashed prices regardless of cost to move them quick! New, first-grade tires—the same makes that come on new cars—full factory guarantee. All leading brands and popular sizes on hand at start of sale but not all sizes in every brand. Special lots of 3, pairs, singles. All thrown into 6 sensational price groups. Grab your bargains early.

GROUP 1	GROUP 2	GROUP 3	GROUP 4	GROUP 5	GROUP 6
SIZE 29x4.40	SIZE 30x4.50	SIZE 29x5.25	SIZE 32x6.00	SIZE 6.50x18	SIZE 6.50x19
BALLOONS	BALLOONS	BALLOONS	BALLOONS	BALLOONS	BALLOONS
Ford	Ford	Essex	Nash	Auburn	Buick
Chevrolet	Chevrolet	Dodge	Studebaker	Reo	Franklin
$4.90	$5.75	$8.95	$10.85	$13.85	$11.85
			4-Ply	6-Ply	4-Ply
			6-Ply		6-Ply
			$13.10	$13.85	$14.05

No Sales to Tire Dealers—No Orders Taken by Phone—First Come, First Choice

Bargains in Guaranteed Used Tires

If IT'S extra Spares you need, or "Tide-Over" tires, here's guaranteed mileage in good used tires that will cost you "little or nothing." Some nearly new, some half worn, others thoroughly reconditioned.

30x4.50 . . $1.50	28x5.25 . . $3.00
28x4.75 . . $2.50	29x5.50 . . $3.50
29x5.00 . . $2.50	31x6.00 . . $4.00

Many Others Priced as Low or Lower—All With Double Guarantee
A Good Used Tire is a Better Buy than a Cheap-Grade New Tire

always the best Trade-in deal

"Trade-in" originated with General. We do the biggest business and have the best demand for the used tires. That's why we can always give you the best deal no matter what make or size of tire you use.

Easy Payment Terms on Blowout-Proof GENERALS

Our famous GTAC Payment Plan makes General, the world's safest, easiest riding tire, the easiest tire to buy. The only plan of its kind. Financed by the General factory. High interest and extras eliminated. Credit made as good as cash. Our complete General line includes the right tire to fit the smallest as well as the largest cars. Let us show you how easily you can own the BEST.

ATLANTA'S LEADING TIRE STORE

GENERAL TIRE SERVICE CO.

Spring Street Cor. Cain
Ed Ripley

Walnut 9212-9213
Eugene McElroy

MISS DOROTHY METHVIN AND D. F. M'CLATCHY, JR., WED

Two Popular Atlantans Are Married in New Orleans

Of cordial interest to their many friends is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Methvin and Devereaux Fore McClatchey, Jr., who were married in New Orleans, La., on Saturday, July 12.

Mrs. McClatchey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Methvin, 1549 North Decatur road, received her high school education at Girls' High school, Atlanta, and following a year of study in France during 1926-27, she received diplomas from the Sorbonne and from the University of Nancy. In 1928, she was graduated from Randolph-Macon Woman's college, of Lynchburg, Va., with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. She is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary society, and of the Alpha Delta Pi, social sorority.

Mr. McClatchey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McClatchey, of 97 East Park lane, is a graduate of Boys' High school and in 1925 received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy from Emory University. He was graduated from the Lamar school of law, Emory University, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1929, and has since been associated with the law firm of Harold Hirsch and Marion Smith. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma social fraternity and the Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. McClatchey, after a few days' sojourn in New Orleans, will voyage to Cuba and Central America before returning to their home in Atlanta.

East Atlanta Groups Will Gather Tuesday

Representatives of all civic clubs of southeast Atlanta will meet at the John B. Gordon school in East Atlanta at 8 o'clock Tuesday night to perfect the organization of the Southeast Inter-Civic Association of Atlanta.

It will be the business of this organization to secure greater cooperation among the different civic clubs of this section in order to plan and work more effectively for civic improvements and keep in closer touch with matters of public interest and welfare, it was said.

The meeting will be addressed by Robert P. McClarty, president of the Inter-Civic Association, and others.

And Cents, Too!

Maybe she tosses that perfumed hair about to show what a whale of a difference just a few cents make.—The Pathfinder.

Offensive Underarm Odors depart... You are Sweet and Charming with ODO-RO-NO

Why bear the humiliation of offensive underarm odor any longer... why grieve over the ruin of one more pretty frock from ugly perspiration stains?

Odorono will stop underarm odor and perspiration at once—like magic!

You may harmlessly divert perspiration so that the underarms are always dry, always odorless—merely by applying the ruby colored Odorono Regular twice a week at night.

For haste, or in an emergency use the colorless Quick-Drying Mild while you are dressing. It dries immediately... you are completely protected for 24 hours to 2 full days.

Odorono is for men, too. Wherever toilet goods are sold, 35¢, 60¢ and $1.

ODO-RO-NO
SAVES YOUR GOWNS

SECKATARY HAWKINS

THE LOW SOUND OF A SERIES OF WHISTLES, LIKE THE PIPES OF PAN, SUDDENLY CAME TO OUR EARS AS WE SAT IN THE TENT OF THE ISLAND. IT WAS THE NIGHT ON WHICH THE THREE-EYED APE HAD BEEN KILLED BY JECKERSON.

The Pipes of Pan.

WE HURRIED TO THE BEACH WHERE OUR CANOES AND BOATS WERE KEPT. JECKERSON DISCOVERED A STRANGE LOOKING LITTLE BOAT, MADE OF BARREL STAVES, WITH ONE SEAT AND A PAIR OF SHORT OARS. BUT OUR BIG FLATBOAT WAS MISSING.

WE HURRIED DOWN THE SHORE AND SOON CAME IN SIGHT OF THE MISSING BOAT. IT WAS LANDED RIGHT BESIDE THE PILE OF STONES UNDER WHICH WE HAD BURIED THE DEAD APE. THE HUNCHBACK HAD PULLED DOWN ALL THE STONES

By Robert Franc Schulkers

AND HAD DRAGGED THE HUGE BODY OF THE MONSTER DOWN TO THE BOAT. NOW HE WAS BENDING HIMSELF HEAVILY UPON THE LONG OARS. THE GREAT FLATBOAT WITH ITS GHASTLY CARGO BEGAN ITS WAY ACROSS THE RIVER.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

PETER LEARNS MORE.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.
Bit by bit is knowledge earned.
And thus the truth is slowly learned.
—Old Mother Nature.

"I'm glad you like them," replied Egret.

Rabbit and Jerry Muskrat had seen him arrive and, as they watched the great white bird come sailing in in stately fashion on those broad wings of his, they thought that somehow there must be something wrong with their eyes. That he was a Heron they knew instantly. He couldn't be anything but a Heron. However, neither had ever even heard of an all-white Heron, nor one with such beautiful plumes as they soon discovered Egret carried on his back.

Egret had explained that once upon a time members of his family used to come as far north, but that it was a long time since any of them had ventured quite so far. He had told Peter and Jerry how his family had been destroyed by feather hunters, who wanted those beautiful plumes for women to wear. It was a dreadful story. The mere thought of it made Peter shiver.

"I don't suppose," said Peter at last, "that there is any other member of your family with such beautiful plumes. Never have I seen anything like them. They are the most wonderful feathers that a bird could have."

"I'm glad you like them," replied

BEAUTY FASHIONS.

A STYLISH FROCK FOR THE GROWING GIRL.

6898. Here we have the popular capelet, shoulder, replacing sleeves and shape yoke sections, holding a circular skirt, that has plait fullness at the center front and at the sides. The waist blouses softly above a narrow belt. The "V" neck is finished with a narrow band lengthened out and tied in loops and ends. Flat crepe in the new pastel shades, dainty, and handkerchief linen are recommended for this style. Companion prints are also suggested.

The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make this pretty model in a 12-year-size with capelets will require 2 5/8 yards 33 inches wide. Without the capelets 2 1/8 yards are required. To finish neck, and armseye edges with bias binding including the loops and ends will require 2 1/2 yards 2 inches wide.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps of our up-to-date spring and summer 1930 Book of Fashions.

Address orders to Beauty Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Negro House Bombed; Man Is Slightly Hurt

Seven negroes, all in one room, narrowly escaped death or serious injury early Sunday morning when the home of Will Nash at 514 Mitchell street was bombed by an unknown person. Nash himself was the only one of the seven to receive injury, pronounced as minor.

The bombing rocked the neighborhood and shattered glass a block away told police that he suspected a son-in-law of the bombing, as his daughter who was in the house at the time of the affair, had refused to live with her husband, who had made repeated threats.

Lone Bandit Robs Gas Station of $140

G. M. Davis, operator of a filling station at 1089 Peachtree street, reported to detectives Sunday morning that shortly before midnight Saturday, a lone white bandit held him up and robbed him of $140. The hold-up artist locked him in a closet at the filling station and departed after rifling the cash drawer.

Egypt's Parliament Adjourned by King

CAIRO, Egypt, July 13.—(AP)—A royal decree was issued today adjourning parliament for three weeks. In the meantime, Hafez Afifi Pasha, foreign minister, has been appointed minister to London, a post which has been vacant for some time. Observers understood that he would resume the recently interrupted negotiations between Egypt and Great Britain.

Three Visitors Hurt In Auto Collisions

Three visitors from out-of-town, two of them women, were slightly injured in automobile crashes in Atlanta Sunday afternoon.

In an automobile collision at Spring and Marietta streets, Mrs. Betty Mae Robinson, of Bowden, and Miss Beulah Robinson, of Chattahoochee, were cut by flying glass but their injuries were not considered serious enough to warrant treatment at a hospital. They were riding in a car driven by A. A. Robinson, of Bowden, whose machine collided with one driven by Miss Annie King, of Whitesburg. Patrolman Albright who investigated, made no case.

M. C. Johnson, of Jackson, was cut about the head when his car was struck at the intersection of Boulevard and Edgewood by a machine driven by James Luke, negro, of Decatur. He was treated at Grady hospital. Luke is said to have left the scene of the accident without giving his name, and was later arrested by Patrolmen J. T. Lassiter and J. H. Smith, Jr., as he was alighting from a street car. Though cut and bruised slightly himself, he was not seriously hurt. He was locked up on charges of being intoxicated, reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident without giving his name.

Is Mother of Eight

"The first year after I got married I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was so weak that the minute I would start to do something I would feel badly. It did me a lot of good. Since then I have taken the Vegetable Compound off and on whenever I needed it. I am now the mother of eight children and I still recommend this medicine for it makes me feel younger and stronger."—Mrs. Oresance Godfrey, 123 Cumberland Street, Woonsocket, Rhode Island.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

Washing and Ironing

now made Easier, Safer and more Economical . . . . .

Combination Electric Washer and Ironer

$10 down, 18 months to pay balance
Washer Only—$5 down

A compact, low-priced Home Laundry Unit Special Terms During July Only

YOUR family's laundry is handled in one of three ways: (1) you do it yourself, (2) you send it out to a washerwoman or to a laundry; or (3) you have it done "on the place" under your personal supervision.

If you do it yourself you're spending back-breaking hours with which a new Thor Washer and Ironer will dispense. If you send your family's clothing to homes of doubtful cleanliness you're taking chances with health. If you have the laundry done "on the place" you should have a Thor Washer and Ironer to do the job more thoroughly, with greater safety and with more economy.

With the Thor Agitator Washer and Attachment Ironer the complete washing can be done in one-third the time. When washing is done, remove the wringer, attach the iron in its place, sit down and iron everything in 2 short hours.

From Washer to Ironer in 10 Seconds

Ask for a home demonstration right away. No obligations!

FREE!—This Paragon Clothes Basket with the purchase of Thor Washer or Ironer during special sale. Usual value, $5.00. Has folding legs. Attractively finished.

GEORGIA
POWER COMPANY

— A CITIZEN WHEREVER WE SERVE —

Play a new role

YOU can't be yourself many years at a stretch, without being somebody new! All at once, you will be using different cosmetics, eating different foods, setting your table differently, rearranging your surroundings, readjusting your whole scheme of life.

Advertisements lead you to do this—even when you are least aware. They announce the new discoveries. Others try them. You try them. Of a sudden, you've changed! The old is at once too out-of-date. It is too slow in this age of speed. Too ineffective in this age of perfection.

Somewhere, in advertisements you have not read yet, are things other people are reading about that will make a change in you. Read The Constitution advertisements today. You will discover some of the things you will want to use habitually. You might even get ahead and start using some today.

Constitution advertisements enlighten you about the new... and enlighten your life with their news.

STYLES BY ANNETTE

STYLE ARTISTS PAY TRIBUTE TO COTTONS.

It's straight and slim. Of course it has plait, which are now quite the thing. They are laid in killed effect at either side, forming front and back panel that gives height to the figure. The bodice has a guimpe yoke of white pique which is repeated in cap sleeves. It is long-waisted. It gives the appearance of a hip yoke belted at the natural waistline.

Style No. 616 comes in size 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure. In the medium size 3 3/4 yards of 39-inch material, with 1-2 yard of 39-inch contrasting.

Pattern price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Enclose 10 cents additional for a copy of large Fashion Magazine.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

JIM THE CONQUEROR

By PETER B. KYNE

Nineteenth Installment.

When Crooked Bill looked and spoke in that tone of voice, Roberta knew from experience that obedience was incumbent upon her. Amiable and loving as he customarily was, there were times when he must not be trifled with, and this was one of them. Roberta's eyes filled with tears; in a tremulous voice she begged to be excused and withdrew.

Crooked Bill's wild eyebrows went up as the girl left the room. "She's as big a crook as I am," he declared proudly. "She isn't at all distressed. She's just pulling the old stuff—not on me this time, but on you, my boy. She expects you to follow her out and comfort her. She has just given birth to the bright idea we have planted in her brain, and now she wants to get you alone and spring it on you. Do not disappoint her, my boy. Forward! I'll sit here and masticate my fodder. I shall not be lonely, Glenn, because I know you'll both be back for the dessert, and after that we'll have a fine, large evening. Roberta shall sing for us."

"Are you quite certain she wouldn't prefer to be left alone, Mr. Latham?" she's all upset. You gave her a burglarious look and there was murder in your voice."

"Listen to me, son. If you want to hold on to me as a client, if you ever expect to finger another retainer from Crooked Bill's Latham, don't pestle him with questions. I know my onions. The girl's play-acting. Vamoose!"

Glenn Hackett "rammed." Within five minutes he returned with Roberta on his arm.

"Hum!" Crooked Bill reflected. "And she spent at least a minute making up her face! Four minutes she put over her loving plot against me. The little crook!" He beamed upon her. "I'm so sorry I spoke crossly to my little girl," he announced with hypocriticalunction.

Bobby kissed him fondly and gave him a little hug, the butler passed the roast beef for fresh hot cuts and Glenn Hackett began a discussion of international tennis, to be interrupted presently by Crooked Bill.

"I think you might tell Harms to serve some of my Folger's 98. Bobby," he suggested. "It will probably be the last bottle of real champagne we'll ever drink, but while we have time to the cellar let's go to it."

"Had Crooked Bill lived in the days of Demosthenes there is no doubt but that he would have run the Oracle of Delphi out of business. Roberta did sing to them after dinner! However, Crooked Bill was not one to gum up his own finely laid plans, and presently, with a full realization of the truth of the old adage that three is a crowd, he withdrew to his room, leaving Glenn Hackett to make what progress he could with the rebellious Roberta.

But Crooked Bill did not retire. He was much too excited to sleep. Instead he lit a cigar and smoked until 10 o'clock, at which hour he knew Glenn Hackett, a creature of habit, would depart for the city. So Crooked Bill went down the back stairs, crossed the lawn and waited for Hackett at the entrance to Hillcrest. "Did it work?" he demanded. "Overtime," Hackett replied. "I guess I'm not some little old prognosticator, eh?"

"You certainly know every convulsion in Roberta's mind. I'm sure I never would. She'd outgame me every time she started."

"Was she nice to you after I left?"

"Well—er—ah—Platonic."

"Agh!" Crooked Bill growled deep in his throat, like an aged tiger. "Go home, you jellyfish. You'd be a bachelor in the South Sea Islands—and on an island where they practice polyandry."

Thoroughly disgusted he returned to the house and mixed himself a noggin of his favorite elixir.

He had a premonition that Fate was, in a manner of speaking, stacking the cards against him.

There is nothing quite so satisfactory

ing and restful to a human being as the knowledge of a day's deed successfully, may brilliantly, performed. It is not to be marveled at, therefore, that both Crooked Bill and Roberta slept well that night; at breakfast neither had ever felt nor looked so chipper in years, albeit, in order to accentuate his pose of abandon and despair Crooked Bill neglected to shave, had little to say during the meal and sighed gustily from time to time. He caught an early train to the city, explaining that the sooner he swept up the fragments of his scattered fortunes the better for all concerned.

Roberta motored in a little later and went at once to Glenn Hackett's office, where he prepared and she signed a formal assignment of all of her right, title and interest in and to her Uncle Tom's estate to Hackett, for and in consideration of certain moneys to be advanced to her by Hackett. The further details of saving something out of the wreck for her uncle she left to the lawyer.

"Now, then, Roberta," Hackett said when the document was signed, "you understand that this is a business deal from first to last. Not a speck of sentiment in it so far as I am concerned. While you have given me security for the funds I am to advance, it may be that I will be called upon to advance a sum in excess of the total value of your Uncle Tom's estate. Consequently, it is of the utmost importance that the estate should be administered wisely and conservatively. I have looked up your lawyer at Los Algodones, Don Prudencio Alviso, and he appears to have an excellent record for probity, but is a poor business man. If—"

"I know. But what do you know about Higuera's?" Nothing except what we have heard and the fact that his correspondence would indicate he is a kindly, humorous and wonderfully obliging gentleman. But lawyers look at all things from a cold and conservative angle, and the thought occurs to me: Why is Don Jaime Miguel Higuera taking all this trouble? What do you mean to him? He is a gentleman, so why should he be worried with your sheep? My dear Bobby, I am highly suspicious of that fellow."

Bobby's lip drooped. She had not thought of Don Jaime in that light before, and her common sense warned her that there might be more than a modicum of truth in Hackett's suspicions. He saw the doubt he had planted burgeoning, and hastened to aid its growth.

"As I told you before, it is impossible for me to go to Texas to look up your affairs, Bobby, not withstanding the fact that it would be a privilege to serve you. Unfortunately others have a prior claim on my professional services and I may not evade them. Your unfortunate uncle dare not leave New York at this time either. His creditors might think he was endeavoring to flee the country. Consequently, I think it is of the utmost importance that you go to Los Algodones immediately and investigate everything thoroughly."

"But, Glenn, I don't know a thing about business, and I'm afraid it's too big an order. Quite usually I believe what apparently decent people tell me."

"I disagree with you. You have a feminine intuition of the highest degree of development. You could sniff out a crook at sight. If you go there, get acquainted with your lawyer and Don Jaime and after a few weeks, discover that you have absolutely no mental reservations regarding either or both. I shall think it quite safe to leave your affairs in their hands for the present, at least."

(Copyright, 1930, for The Constitution.)

(Continued Tomorrow.)

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

- ACROSS.
- Small spur for stretching a sail.
  - Drive slantingly, as a nail.
  - Gloomy, satintwiled woolen stuff.
  - Ascend.
  - Part of a circle.
  - At right angles to the level.
  - Device for showing speed of a vessel.
  - Gale from a certain direction.
  - Point of compass: abbr.
  - Middle Atlantic state.
  - Chances of success.
  - Leave out.
  - Over and in contact with.
  - Hawk that preys upon fish.
  - Harleins.
  - Ancient.
  - Sphere of action.
  - English seaport town.
  - Merits by labor.
  - Particle.
  - Rowing implement.
  - Tooth.
  - Falsehood.
  - Large tract of.
- DOWN.
- water indenting the coast line.
  - Reef.
  - A short skirt.
  - A fungus.
  - Fay.
  - Extent, as of a sail.
  - Commands.
  - French article.
  - Black.
  - Toward a higher level.
  - A cereal grass.
  - With.
  - Mimic.
  - A bay window.
  - Shoal at entrance to a river.
  - Star in Orion.
  - Flat-bottomed scow.
  - Harden.
  - Naval salute of big guns.
  - Malaysian vessels.
  - Arrangement of spars and sails.
  - Has being.
  - Careening too easily under sail.
  - Sailors.
  - A worthless sail.
  - Reverberate.
  - Nautical.
  - Seamans' ratment.
  - 11 Horn.
  - 12 A light boat.
  - 13 Signs.

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle.

SEPS CERES CHAR
PART HEAVE HUGO
AGER ARMOR ERIA
TREATS SKELETON
SENNETS ENOS
GLEAN ARENAS
CALLA TILDE EKE
ALEE CANOE BEET
MOA BONED LADES
PEPSIS SETON
TAMP SHADOWS
COURSERS ANEPIA
OLLA TITAN RING
LIES IMAGE ONCE
TOSS CEROS LICES

- Hypothetical force, varying.
- High Turkish officials.
- Spoken.
- A large fish.
- Boat engaged in pearling.
- A rope fastened across the shrouds of a ship.
- A pleasure-craft of British India.
- To fish with rod, hook and line.
- Canine.
- Water: French.
- Spawn of fish.
- Lubricate.
- Joined.
- Favorable: applied to certain winds.
- Biblical city.
- Drift.
- Famous captain hanged as a pirate.
- French taxes on salt.
- Fish suitable for frying.
- Single-masted vessel.
- Precious gem.
- Monetary unit of British India.
- Enchantment.
- Substock of Negroids.
- Depth indicator on a lead-line.
- Aut: Spanish.
- Roman household god.
- Ern.
- Halt an em.
- Pronoun.

THE GUMPS—BACK TO THE SCENES OF MY CHILDHOOD

MOON MULLINS—AN EYE FOR COLOR

Somebody's Stenog—
"Free" Verse.

Little Orphan Annie.
Getting Acquainted.

Aunt Het

"A woman pretends she dresses to please her husband, but you notice she looks sloppy at home and saves her gorgeous raiment for a hen party." (Copyright, 1930, for The Constitution.)

JUST NUTS

THIS IS THE PLACE WHERE WASHINGTON CROSSED THE DELAWARE IN BOATS!

WHY DIDN'T HE USE THE BRIDGE?

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Pa Suffers a Disappointment in Life

GASOLINE ALLEY—MOUSETRAPS OR HAIRCUTS, THEY'LL MAKE A PATH TO YOUR DOOR

MAGNIFICENT TRIBUTE IS READY FOR JONES

Today's the day that Bobby Jones comes home and it will be even a bigger day than the one pictured above, when Bobby came home in 1926 with the National open and the British open cups. Atlanta turned out magnificently then but today's welcome is expected to reach tremendous proportions. The parade today forms at Peachtree and Baker at noon and moves down Peachtree to Whitehall. Out Whitehall it goes to Mitchell and thence to the city hall where the formal reception will be held. Top left is a scene at the Terminal station plaza in 1926 with the parade starting its march through the lane opened for it. Center is Bobby with one of his cups. At the right the parade is moving through a crowded uptown street. But today's the day of days with Bob Jones coming home with three cups, all England has and one from his own country. And the welcome is expected to make the one pictured above seem small in comparison.

Crackers Hit Two Lookout Pitchers Hard and Win, 11 to 2

GOOD FIELDING, STEADY HURLING AD IN VICTORY

Langford, Sheehan Drive in Seven Runs With Homers.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 13. Chattanoogaans are learning anew the old adage that the worm will turn. The Atlanta Crackers, who were the Lookouts' defeated eight straight times at the start of the season, plastered a 11-2 defeat on the Lookouts today for the third defeat in as many days.

Climax Blithen was on the rubber for the Crackers, but he had an easy task. Once the Crackers started scoring they piled up runs with great rapidity. Chattanooga used two pitchers. Seven Crackers came through two home runs. Sam Langford hit two over the right field fence with two men out in the sixth and Jack Sheehan crashed one deep center for a home run with the bases full in the eighth.

GREAT PLAY. Atlanta played great baseball behind Blithen, turning in five double plays, which is near a record for one game in the Southern league. The Lookouts, who made costly errors in the two games at Atlanta, continued today with two more that proved very harmful to the cause.

Sam Langford was hit by a pitched ball and knocked out in the eighth inning. He was not thought seriously hurt but was taken out of the game. Si Rosenthal finished for him. The Lookout park seems to be a jinx for Cracker outfielders. It was here that Red Barron, another outfielder, was hurt some weeks ago.

THE SCORING. There was no scoring today until the third, when the Lookouts made one Atlanta defeat in the fifth, three in the sixth and four more in the eighth. The Lookouts counted one in the final inning.

The Box Score

ATLANTA	AB	R	H	P	O	A	E
Langford, cf	4	2	2	0	0	0	0
Rosenthal, cf	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Sheehan, 2b	3	2	2	5	8	0	0
Johnson, rf	5	0	1	1	0	0	0
Carlyle, lf	5	0	1	1	1	0	0
Shirley, 1b	5	0	1	1	0	0	0
Lamotte, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Appling, ss	4	1	0	1	0	0	0
Polyak, c	2	1	0	0	0	0	0
Blithen, p	4	2	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	38	11	12	27	21	0	0
CHATTANOOGA	AB	R	H	P	O	A	E
Deshield, 2b	4	0	1	1	5	0	0
Walker, lf	4	1	1	3	0	0	0
Treadaway, rf	4	0	1	1	0	0	0
Russell, 3b	3	0	1	0	0	0	0
Gooch, 3b	4	0	2	0	0	0	0
Jones, ss	3	0	1	2	2	0	0
Horn, cf	3	0	1	2	0	0	0
Kenna, c	3	1	2	5	0	0	0
Daney, p	0	0	0	2	0	0	0
Karr, p	1	0	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	2	11	27	12	0	0

Bobby, All-Conquering, Enjoys Sunday of Rest

Golfing Front Quiet as Clans Retreat From Field of Battle.

By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor. CHICAGO, July 13.—The golfing clans, headed by the Emperor Jones, passed through here today in full formation in the retreat from the Battle of Interlachen. Bobby, the all-conquering, enjoyed the first Sunday of rest in three years following an American open championship, making the most of it as his party sped south to Atlanta in a special car attached to a train due to roll in for the big hometown welcome tomorrow.

In fact, this was the first time in four years that all has been quiet on the golfing front the day after an open tournament, with no playoff to keep the main contestants on a Sunday field of combat. Jones has had to play an extra 36 holes to decide each of the two previous tournaments.

Today he was the monarch of all he surveyed as a result of his sensational triumph within the regulation 72 holes at Minneapolis, finishing with a total score of 287 to beat his nearest rival, the veteran MacDonald Smith, of New York, by two strokes.

It took two Smiths to give one Jones the fight over the Interlachen links. Mac Smith set the pace at the outset and after a brief lapse, he was the one to make the greatest bid to overhaul the flying Georgian on the last round. Mac shot opening and closing rounds of 70, each two under par, but he sandwiched cards of 75 and 74 in between to spoil his chances of victory.

Horton Smith, the 22-year-old Missourian, came along to set the pace for Jones and lead the field at the halfway mark. There, the tall blonde professional had a sparkling total of 122. He made the best showing of his career in this tournament, but he, too, found the final day's pace a trifle too swift. Horton wound up with rounds of 70-74 for a total of 144 that moved him back to third place at the finish.

Bobby's twelfth major tournament triumph, at home and abroad, since he first won the American open in 1923 at Inwood, was perhaps his greatest. He shot his finest round in 11 years of competition in this event, a 68 on the third round that put all but Mac Smith to rout. He withstood the effects of one of the most torrid heat waves ever accompanying the event, where many competitors wilted.

He rallied three separated and distinct times, when on the verge of disaster in the final round, to go up to the 18th hole and sink a 40-foot putt for a birdie with more than 10,000 spectators looking on, cheering the master's final brilliant gesture.

For the first time in about three months, Jones can rest now, with three major conquests on British and American links to his credit and the fourth in prospect for him in the American amateur championship at Philadelphia in September. Where the odds were 50 to 1 against him at the start, Bobby now has achieved the unprecedented by capturing three of the four main crowns of golf. Within eight years he has now captured 12 of these blue ribbon events to set a record that well may stand for all time.

For the fourth time in the American open, the professional clans had to be satisfied by chasing Jones and collecting merely their share of the prize money. As the top-finishing pro, Mac Smith lifted $1,000 of the $5,000 distributed to 21 players, two other amateurs, Johnny Goodman and George Von Elm, received gold medals for being inside the prize-winning group, tied for 11th position.

STEWART MAIDEN Praises Bob Jones. Stewart Maiden, Bobby Jones' former golf teacher for many years was among those overjoyed to learn of his great victory Saturday at Minneapolis. He wired Al Doonan Sunday afternoon at the Atlanta Athletic Club and the telegram from New York speaks for itself. "Bobby's win most astounding thing that ever happened in the realm of any sports. God bless him. Give him my personal congratulations. Sorry I cannot be with you old folks in your hour of great joy.—Stewart."

Maiden is now connected with a New York club.

Interlachen Tournament Probably Bobby's Last Open.

EN ROUTE TO ATLANTA WITH BOBBY JONES PARTY, July 13.—Much has been published of speculative nature about Bobby Jones' future plans as to competitive golf. None of it has been authorized by Bobby himself. He courteously declines to comment for publication on what he may do next year or the next.

Yet the belief is well grounded now among those close to the champion that he never again will play in an open championship, either in England or in America. That he has played in his last national open seems almost certain from the atmosphere of finality about this victory at Interlachen.

ALL THERE IS TO WIN. Bobby has won all there is to win in golf. His position as the greatest golfer of all time is secure. As an amateur golfer he might be interested in competing in American or even in British amateur championships where the hazards of match play give great uncertainty to the outcome.

But the National open, or the British open, is not worth his effort any longer. What I mean is that an open championship is the most gruelling sporting event of all; it takes a terrific toll on energy and peace of mind. At times it is agonizing to body and heart to compete.

And the only reward for Bob Jones winning is his name on an old silver cup and the glory of the open champion.

It deprives a professional golfer of a vast sum of money when Bobby wins; it strikes a blow at pride and at purse in one stroke. Only the winning personality of the man Jones has kept the peace between him and the professional field.

They love him and take their defeats at his hands in good grace. They would resent losing to a less amiable amateur.

THE GREATEST EFFORT. The professionals made their greatest effort to beat him at Interlachen. It was a course over which low scoring was possible.

So they prepared themselves physically to give Bob the biggest battle of his life. They did just that. They hemmed him in the first two rounds as he never before has been cornered. Yet he splintered their shafts with one round of superlative golf and left them gasping and helpless.

FUTURE OPENS APPEAR DULL.

This triumph at Interlachen was Bobby's greatest achievement. Coming as it did, in the wake of victories in the British amateur and open, it constitutes a peak.

Any further adventures in open championship play would be flat for Jones. He could add no more glory to his record and might appear in a rather awkward role.

Bobby has finished first or tied for first place in seven out of the last eight open championships. He has won the National open four times. And this last victory was accomplished in the face of what admittedly was an organized effort to subdue him.

A circumstance might arise where his re-entry into open championship play might be the thing to do. But just now it looks as if Bobby will find his business pressing next July when the National open is played.

It will be a great surprise to many if he ever accepts the issue in the wearing, tearing, grinding open championship again.

MAY TRY IT LEFT HANDED. A suggestion of mine, however, may be adopted. I am real proud of it, too.

Since there is nothing left for Bobby to do now, he Continued on Second Sport Page.

Strong Defensive Play Scores In Big Leagues

Clubs With Power Afield Come Out Ahead of Slugging Rivals.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Defensive baseball, which has appeared rather outmoded lately, came into its own in the major leagues last week. The clubs which could play good defensive ball when it was needed came out far ahead of their rivals who slugged and were slugged.

The Cincinnati Reds, recovering in an amazing fashion from a week of successive defeats, showed the way to all rivals by winning seven straight games. No other team in either league gained so many victories or got through undefeated, but the Reds did not do anything unusual in the clotting line. They made but 70 hits, a mark which four National league teams passed, the Phillies leading with 104 blows, and scored only 41 runs for third place in the league. But the Reds held their opponents to 25 runs and fielded finely, making only three errors.

The league-leading Brooklyn Robins put up a similar performance to take second place for the week, winning five games and losing one. They tallied 37 times and held their opponents to 17 runs, the lowest total in either circuit. They also fielded well, although their five errors did not threaten the lead in fielding of the Boston Braves, who committed only two.

The New York Giants, tying for third with Pittsburgh at four games won and three lost, topped the league with 57 runs, beating Philadelphia by five, and were second to the Phillies with 99 hits. Philadelphia made the worst fielding record, committing 20 errors. Home run honors were divided between the Phillies and Brooklyn, with seven apiece.

Washington's six victories and two defeats took the lead in the American league in a similar manner. The Senators scored 39 runs and had 25 tallied against them. They also fielded well, making only three errors.

Cleveland, second with five games won and two lost, led in scoring, with 48 runs but had to be content with third in hits as Detroit and Chicago pounded out 100 and 91 blows, respectively.

The White Sox scored 46 runs for second place and the Tigers 45. But these teams likewise hit the high marks in the error column, Chicago with 16 bobbles and Detroit with 15.

Home run hitting was rather light, Washington, Cleveland, Philadelphia and St. Louis sharing first place with five apiece.

Last week's major league records follow:

TEAM	W	L	T	R	H	E	O.R.	H.R.
Cincinnati	7	0	0	41	70	3	33	6
Brooklyn	5	1	0	37	74	5	17	7
New York	4	2	0	37	96	12	65	5
Pittsburgh	4	3	0	36	79	19	35	3
St. Louis	4	3	0	33	100	20	29	3
Philadelphia	3	4	0	33	55	20	7	7
Chicago	4	3	0	55	101	16	24	3
St. Louis	2	5	0	34	68	11	58	5
Boston	1	5	0	18	45	9	34	4

AMERICAN LEAGUE. TEAM. W. L. T. R. H. E. O.R. H.R. Washington 7 0 0 41 70 3 33 6 Cleveland 5 1 0 37 74 5 17 7 New York 4 2 0 37 96 12 65 5 Pittsburgh 4 3 0 36 79 19 35 3 St. Louis 4 3 0 33 100 20 29 3 Philadelphia 3 4 0 33 55 20 7 7 Chicago 4 3 0 55 101 16 24 3 St. Louis 2 5 0 34 68 11 58 5 Boston 1 5 0 18 45 9 34 4

Ed Hamm Captures Jump in Denmark. COPENHAGEN, Denmark, July 13.—(AP)—George Dullwinkle, of the College of the City of New York, was beaten in the 800 meters run of an athletic meet here today by the Dane, Albert Larson.

Pete Bowen, Ed Hamm and Steve Anderson touring Europe with Bullwinkle, and Tommy Warne of North-western, all won their events against picked athletes from Denmark, Sweden and Hungary. The king was among the enthusiastic spectators and personally congratulated the Americans.

BOB'S RETURN GRIPS HEART OF WHOLE CITY

Atlantan Wins Admiration and Respect of All By Sportsmanship.

By Ralph McGill.

Along the streets today there'll come the rattle of drums, a flash of color, the tread of feet as a great city pays tribute to the most astounding phenomena the competitive athletic world has ever seen.

Bobby Jones is coming home. What a lot of adjectives have been dragged out to adorn that name. What a lot of superlatives have been cast into type in an effort to convey the genius of the man to the reader.

It is time, I think, to forget adjectives. The name is enough. There is enough magic in these two words to make a nation hold its breath while the last putt drops; there is enough potency in it to turn the city of New York upside down, to cause special trains to race hundreds of miles, to busy all the wires and cables with description of the man's efforts at golf. And today his home city will be turned upside down. Very much so.

And so it is perhaps time to forget a lot of adjectives in connection with the name Bobby Jones. By itself it is a synonym for magnificent adjectives and superlative ability.

It has been a long trail from the youngster who was playing with sawed off sticks about 20 years ago to the man who will ride today with the eyes of the world on him and the acclaim of the world ringing in his ears. But the journey has been magnificent.

Along the trail there have been many mile posts, more than in the life of any other competitive athlete. The record is almost unbelievable.

American Open—1923, 1926, 1928, 1930. American Amateur—1924, 1925, 1927, 1928. British Open—1926, 1927, 1929. British Amateur—1920.

The parade today is a tangible expression of a city's love and high regard for Bobby Jones. There is no way for a great city to tell the man how much they think of him. And so today it will stand in the sun beaming behind him and shriek at him. Which is our modern method of expressing regard.

In times gone by conquerors returning from a conquest of foreign lands paraded through the streets of their native city with captives groaning at their chariot wheels. Bobby Jones binds thousands captive with the snaffle of respect and admiration. If there be any groaning it is because they cannot play golf like the map.

The parade forms at noon today at Baker and Peachtree streets and moves on through the city to the city hall. In the parade there will be all the civic clubs, all the organizations of the city.

There will be the band from the colored Elks Club. There will be a large company of cadets marching with that band. And it is very likely to be one of the big features of the parade.

It so happens that the name Bobby Jones has penetrated to every household in the city and state. And it carries with it only respect and admiration.

Atlanta is fortunate in having many citizens who have unselfishly given of their ability and their character to make the city great. None of them has given more unselfishly or more finely than Bobby Jones.

And so today the city will stand on the street or march behind him and shriek at him. It is a way we have of telling a man that we love him.

Volunteers Played First Night Game

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 13.—(UN)—Night baseball isn't such a new fad, after all. The first night game ever played was in Chattanooga on the night of July 3, 1893, more than 35 years ago, between Chattanooga and Little Rock, which Chattanooga won, 10-0. E. T. Bales, sports editor of the Chattanooga News, said in a signed story Sunday. The idea wasn't such a howling success, however, as the lights in vogue at that time were of insufficient candle-power to enable players to see high fly balls.

Italian Cup Stars Win Right To Meet American Net Team

POTENT RACQUET OF DE MORPURGO BEATS JAPANESE

Italy Enters Inter-Zone Finals for Second Time.

By Thomas T. Topping, Associated Press Staff Writer.

GENOA, Italy, July 13.—(AP)—The potent racquet of Baron Humbert L. de Morpurgo carried Italy into the interzone finals of Davis cup tennis competition today for the second time in three years.

Playing in his finest form, the Italian ace swept Yoshiro Ohta, of Japan, off his feet in straight sets, 6-2, 7-5, 6-1, to meet France, who played busily in the first round.

Earlier in the day, Takeichi Harada, who had beaten Morpurgo in singles on Friday, conquered Giorgio de Stefani in straight sets, 6-2, 7-5, 6-1, to deadlock the series at two victories apiece.

Italy's triumph qualified Morpurgo and his mates for the interzone finals against the United States at Paris Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The winner of this series will gain the right to meet France, holder of the cup for three years, in the challenge round at Paris, July 25, 26 and 27.

Morpurgo, who plans to retire from international tennis competition after this year, played a brilliant all-around game that held Ohta helpless. The baron showed no signs of the illness which was reported to have handicapped his play against Harada on Friday.

He raced through the first set without the loss of a single game, allowing Ohta only six points in the first five games and only 11 all told in the entire set. The Japanese put up a little better defense in the next two sets but at no time was he dangerous.

Harada, playing a high grade game all the way, gave De Stefani a tennis lesson in their match. The stifling heat, it was nearly 95 in the shade, appeared to weigh De Stefani more than the Japanese, who played business-like tennis without hurry or unnecessary exertion.

Grant and Mooney Seeded in Tourney

KANSAS CITY, July 13.—(AP)—Seven of the first twenty ranking tennis players in the United States have been paired for the opening of the 21st annual national clay courts tennis tournament here tomorrow.

The seven include the defending singles champion, Emmett Parr, of Chicago, ranking No. 15, and the doubles titleholders, Gilbert Hall, Orange, N. J., ranking No. 13, and Frederic Mercur, Harrisburg, Pa., ranking No. 3. The entry list totals an even 100, with the last-minute entries being players, one of them Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., ranking No. 2.

Seeded No. 1 is Mercur, the highest nationally ranked star competing. He is seeded No. 3 and Hall No. 4. Wilbur E. (Junior) Coen, Kansas City boy star and nationally ranked No. 8, is seeded No. 2. Other seeded players are: Frank N. Shields, New York City; Julius Seligson, New York City; Herbert L. Bowman, New York; Bruce Barnes, Dallas, Texas; Wray D. Brown, St. Louis; Harry Coggeshall, Des Moines, Iowa; George J. Jennings, Chicago; Bryan Grant, Atlanta, Ga.; Gustave Boehmer, St. Louis; Jack Mooney, Atlanta, and James Quick, Dallas.

Night Football Test Is Okayed by Pros

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 13.—(AP)—The National Professional Football League will experiment with night games this fall, it was decided at the annual conference of the club-owners here today.

Representatives of the New York Giants, Newark Athletic Association and Portsmouth (Ohio) clubs declared some of their games would be played at night. Other clubs may fall into line.

Big Bill Continues Victorious March

NOORDWIJK, AAN-ZEE, Holland, July 13.—(AP)—Big Bill Tilden won the men's singles title in the Dutch tennis championships today, defeating Daniel Penn, first-ranking German player, 8-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

Tilden then teamed with Penn to win the doubles title, defeating the Dutch Davis cup pair, Hans Timmer and A. Diemer Kool, 6-1, 6-2, 7-5.

Bruce Barnes Takes Missouri Valley Title

DES MOINES, July 13.—(AP)—Bruce Barnes, the Austin (Texas) whirlwind, played a little the more sensational tennis and downed Harris Coggeshall, Des Moines flash, in four sets, 6-3, 6-8, 6-4, 7-5, to win the championship of the Missouri valley today.

The battle royal of the tournament, however, was the fiercely-fought contest for the men's doubles title. For four hours Wray Brown and Ted Eisman, the St. Louis pair, battled with Coggeshall and Junior Coen, Kansas City, before succumbing, 6-3, 6-7, 4-6, 8-6, 9-7.

SPORTS LIGHT Grantland Rice

CHICKS FALTER AS PELS CLIMB IN DAY'S WARS

CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Surrounded by eight or ten of the greatest professionals in golf, Bobby Jones had to cut his way out with the weapon that was once poison to him. This weapon was his masher niblick. For the greater part of the championship he was driving well and putting well but it was the big spade that carved out his twelfth major golf crown at a time when the road to fame looked to be cut off or closed.

Banked around after the first day were such great golfers as MacDonald Smith, Tommy Armour, Walter Hagen, Horton Smith, Harry Cooper, Johnny Farrell, John Golden, Whiffy Cox and one or two others. It was a desperate situation, even for a Bobby Jones.

But the flashing blade of his masher niblick or his spade came to the rescue at almost every call. He handled this pitching club as some master might direct the bow across the strings of a violin.

On hole after hole that last day, from 60 to 20 yards away, he put the ball close enough to the pin to kick it in with either foot. On three occasions he almost booted his pitch, the ball stopping less than a foot from the cup, and usually dead on the line.

It was one of the most astonishing exhibitions of short play that the Open has ever seen. In the final double march it brought him no less than nine birdies, where he had only short putts to hole as he peeled the hide off par.

THE WINNING WEAPON.

Bobby told me the day before the championship started that he was worried about his wooden club play and his long irons. For the first time in any United States open his favorite weapons had begun to falter here and there—not often—but just often enough to be a mental worry and to add a few strokes here and there that might bring disaster.

"I am playing my short pitches better than I ever played them in my life," he said, "almost feel that I can hit the cup from 100 yards with the club that once bothered me most."

His prediction along this line was perfect. This was the club that gave him most of his birdies. For example, in the third round he laid his pitches stone dead at the 4th, 6th, 7th, 11th, 12th and 16th to beat par.

Take the case of the 350-yard 12th: After a fine drive with a following wind, Jones could have carried the plateau guarding traps to reach the green. But there was danger in front if he failed, and deeper danger behind from a 50-foot drop if he overran. So he played 90 yards short of the traps that scarred the face of the upland and then from the valley pitched to within four feet of the cup to beat par again and get his 4.

He was down in one putt from short distances on the 11th, 12th and 13th holes in succession and on two of these occasions the putts he had to hole were less than two feet.

ONE HOLE.

The 350-yard 16th was an ideal hole for this club. In the morning round of Saturday Jones pitched to within eight inches of the pin; in the afternoon round he was less than 3 feet away. There were at least five or six holes at Interlachen that called for a spade or a masher niblick after a good drive and these were the holes that Jones murdered with his devastating pitching blade.

On each occasion he struck the ball firmly and crisply, but always with a marvelous smoothness of wrist action that was never close to being a hurried jab or an unsteady thump. Hands, wrists and forearms worked together on the stroke like well-oiled machinery, perfectly adjusted, and the head remained anchored until the ball was well on its way through the sultry air.

In the afternoon round he needed a 5 at the short 3rd, and a 5 at the short 14th, where on each occasion he was trapped. There were 4 strokes over par on two short holes and the pack was at his heels—Mac and Horton Smith, Cooper, Golden and others all closing in. Here was the greatest chance in the world to break.

But in place of breaking he got a birdie on the 13th, hit the cup for a birdie at the 14th and got another birdie at the 15th to prove his mental courage as well as golfing skill. And then when once more at the 162-yard 17th he sliced into a swamp, his third 3-par hole in 5, he once more rallied to close out the big act with another birdie 3 at the uphill treacherous 18th, where on this occasion he sunk a 40-foot putt. It was not only his golf skill that pulled him through, but his complete refusal to break down or to fall back after certain serious mistakes.

He had carved his way out to cry by slicing into a swamp, but he had been a lack in either his brain or heart.

In the third round he stood on the 17th tee with par for a 66. His pace had been so terrific, 6 under par for 16 holes, that it had burned him out for the time being. The result was that he played the next five holes, two in the forenoon and the first three in the afternoon, in five over par altogether.

But the result is that he never slipped too far. He kept a light, firm grip on his club and a tight grip on his head and in this way put up an impregnable barrier that not even the best of the pros could beat down.

CHICKS FALTER AS PELS CLIMB IN DAY'S WARS

Bears Upset Leaders; Crackers, Winning, Near Third Place.

New Orleans' Pelicans, no more, no less surprised than the rest of the league, gained a full game on the flying Chicks in the battle for the Southern lead in Sunday's wars at the hands of Mobile's, so lowly Bears, unanimously elected candidates for the cellar.

The oh, so lowly Bears rose to crush the league leaders in a death grip and take a 13 to 6 decision. The Pels did their part by handing the Barons of Birmingham the short end of a 12-5 verdict, pushing the Barons down to Sunday's wars at the hands of Mobile's, so lowly Bears, unanimously elected candidates for the cellar.

The Barons lost their almost within reach of Atlanta's climbing Crackers, who won their third straight victory over Chattanooga, 11 to 2, to entrench themselves firmly in fourth place and step to within two full games of the Barons.

Little Rock, the other contender for fourth position, dropped half a game in splitting a double bill with the Nashville taking the first tilt, 12 to 7, while dropping the second, 5 to 3.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 13.—(AP)—The league-leading Memphis Chickasaws had a perfect week, winning all seven games played, and adding another six and one-half games to their advantage in the Southern Association, which they led by 11 games at the close of hostilities Saturday.

While Birmingham was carrying home the scoring honors and Atlanta's bats were piling up the hardest hitting in the league, Memphis was leading in two things—errors and game winning. Birmingham led in scoring with 52 rallies, tied New Orleans for second honors in hitting with 81 safeties and won seven out of eight games played, gaining six full games on New Orleans. Only half a game remained between New Orleans and Birmingham when the week ended.

Atlanta walked away with batting honors, obtaining 86 safeties. The Crackers won four out of seven starts and remained in fourth position. Birmingham won six and losing two. Little Rock crowded Chattanooga out of fifth place. Little Rock and Birmingham allowed their opponents only 29 runs for the week.

New Orleans dropped five to Memphis and won only one out of eight games for the week. Mobile won only one out of seven and Nashville won two out of eight.

Thirty home runs featured the week's activities. Birmingham and Nashville obtained six each. Memphis won five and Memphis won five and Memphis won five.

Figures for the week follow:
TEAM—W. L. R. H. E. O. R.
Memphis..... 7 1 0 81 11 29
Birmingham..... 6 1 0 81 11 29
Atlanta..... 6 1 0 81 11 29
Chattanooga..... 3 6 30 77 12 50
Mobile..... 6 3 30 73 14 54
Nashville..... 6 3 30 73 14 54
New Orleans..... 1 7 38 81 15 50

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 13.—(UN)—Wilmer Hines, Columbia, S. C., defeated Clifford Sutter and Dan Murray, both of New Orleans, to win the men's doubles title in the Southern Lawn Tennis championships here today. The scores were 3-6, 5-7, 6-4, 11-0, 6-3.

Sutter and Murray were defending titlists and general favorites to repeat. Beatrice Bryan, Enterprise, Miss., and Billy Hughes, Memphis, defeated Catherine Wolf, Indianapolis, and Doc Barr, Memphis, to win the southern mixed doubles title, 6-0, 7-5.

REMEMBER:
When William A. Larned, William J. Clotier, Beals C. Wright and Holcombe Ward made up the American Davis Cup team, and Mary Pickford, long curls got her a job in the movies?

Mawnin'!

By Ed Danforth Continued from First Sport Page.

should buy a set of left-handed clubs and change around. Then in a few years he would be proficient as a south-paw and could go back to the open again as a turnover player.

It would be a great chance to prove that golf is more mental than physical.

HARLOW HEDGES ON "THE FOX."

The story goes that Bob Harlow, business manager for Horton Smith and Walter Hagen, had $2,000 wagered on either Smith or Hagen to beat Bobby. And when Bobby came in at noon with that 68, Harlow, thinking rapidly, rushed to a telephone and placed $300 on Gallant Fox to help stave off a complete financial rout.

16 STROKES AHEAD OF "THE HAIG."

Bobby finished 16 strokes ahead of Hagen in this tourney. And this was Hagen's year, they said. Hagen started in fine physical shape and went halfway in fine form. But the cumulative pressure of years of open championship play, plus the 68 that Bobby threw in the morning, wore him down. He was aged and drawn as he came to the 18th green to finish this third round.

BIG MARGIN OVER HAGEN.

Open championships are for the young, perhaps. Jones' margin over Hagen in the eleven open championships in which they have played together is 55 strokes.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

One rather pathetic figure in the great field was Chick Evans, once the flaming amateur who could beat the professionals at their own game. Chick set the all-time record for low scoring in the open when he won in 1916 at Minneapolis. And he won the open and the amateur that same year.

Yet there was Chick playing around, attended by no gallery save an official scorer, struggling to qualify with in the 60 low scores and somehow finish.

Chick is said to have remarked to a friend, "I hope Bobby makes this tournament his last. Look at me. They eventually will get you down until they become a nightmare instead of a pleasure. I hope he quits now while he is at the peak. I wish I had done so."

WHICH IS ANOTHER VIEWPOINT ON THE QUESTION OF BOBBY'S FURTHER COMPETITION IN OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS.

If others are thinking like Chick perhaps Bobby, a far-sighted young man, is thinking that way, too.

SAMMY AND AL MEET IN 'SPOT' OF RING SLATE

Good Bout Looms as Mandell Defends Lightweight Title.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—Sammy Mandell's defense of his lightweight championship against Al Singsler at the Yankee stadium on Thursday night offers another attraction on the national boxing schedule for this week.

The "Rockford Sheik," veteran of nearly 150 matches, has held the 135-pound title since July 3, 1929, when he beat Rocky Kansas in a 10-round bout at Chicago. Though he has been fighting since 1920, Mandell is only 28 years old. If he has lost any of his marvelous speed in recent years, few, if any, of his opponents have discovered it.

Mandell still rates as one of the fastest, and perhaps the cleverest, of all the lightweights. He gave a remarkable demonstration of boxing skill here two years ago when he cut Jimmy McLarnin to pieces in a 15-round battle for the title.

Singer, a youngster hailed in some quarters as a certainty to lift the lightweight crown within the next year or so, will bank largely on the dynamite in his right hand to beat Mandell. He is almost certain to be outspeeded and outboxed.

Supporting the 15-round championship will be a 10-round semi-final marking the American debut of Justo Suarez, sensational Argentine lightweight, against the veteran Joe Glick, Midget Wolgast, of Philadelphia, recognized in some states as flyweight champion, will battle Ernie Peters, of Chicago, in an eight rounder.

ANOTHER CROWN.
In another title affair, Bat Battalino, of Hartford, Conn., will defend his featherweight championship against Ignace Fernandez, hard-hitting Filipino, in a 15-round battle at Hurley stadium, Hartford, tomorrow night. Fernandez, who holds a three-round knockout victory over Singer, gave Battalino a close fight of it in a non-title affair a few months ago.

Kid Chocolate, Cuban negro featherweight, takes on Luigi Quadrini, of Italy, in the 10-round feature bout at the Queensboro stadium Tuesday night for the benefit of Camp Farley, maintained for the negro children of Harlem.

Other boxing centers have little outstanding to offer this week although Cleveland's Thursday night show will see the return to action of Tom Heene, the New Zealand heavyweight, against Johnny Risko in a 12-round bout.

At Detroit tomorrow night, Eddie Shea, of Chicago, will meet Lee Massey, Philadelphia featherweight, in a 10-rounder.

OTHER BOUTS.
Other bouts on the national schedule include:
Monday—At New York, Dexter Park, Harry Ebbets, Prospect, N. Y., vs. Jimmy Buchanan, Watertown, Ga., vs. Jimmy Nash, New York City, vs. Benny Grebe, Cincinnati, welterweights, 10; at Cleveland, Johnny Datto, Cleveland, vs. Harry Nash, Cleveland, featherweights, 10; at Seattle, Joe Anderson, Covington, Ky., vs. Wesley Ketchell, San Luis City, middleweights, 8; at Oklahoma City, Clyde Chastain, Oklahoma City, vs. Everett Strong, Ponca City, Okla., middleweights, 10.

Tuesday—At Portland, Oregon, Fred Leonard, Spokane, vs. Nate Brown, Philadelphia, light-heavyweights, 10.

Wednesday—At Tacoma, Aberdeen, Wash., vs. Harry Dillon, Los Angeles, light-heavyweights, 10.

Thursday—At Tulsa, Battling Boon, Birmingham, vs. Tony Canela, Detroit, light-heavyweights, 10.

Friday—At San Francisco, Rucky Lawless, Syracuse, N. Y., vs. Gorilla Jones, Akron, negro, welterweights, 10.

Baseball's Leaders

Southern League.					National League.
LEADING HITTERS.					LEADING HITTERS.
Hutchinson, Mem.	G. A. R. H. P.	100	100	100	Fisher, St. L.	G. A. R. H. P.	100	100	100
Bolton, Chatt.	100	100	100	100	Rose, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Poole, Nash	100	100	100	100	Klein, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Rosenblatt, Atl.	100	100	100	100	Herman, Brooklyn	100	100	100	100
Bancroft, Birm.	100	100	100	100	St. Louis	100	100	100	100
PITCHERS.					PITCHERS.
Shepherd, Mem.	G. W. L. IP. O. R. P.	100	100	100	O'Brien, Phil.	G. W. L. IP. O. R. P.	100	100	100
Bayne, Chatt.	100	100	100	100	Collins, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Kline, Mem.	100	100	100	100	Brann, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Weller, Mem.	100	100	100	100	St. Louis	100	100	100	100
STOLEN BASES.					STOLEN BASES.
Poole, Nashville	100	100	100	100	Currier, Chicago	100	100	100	100
Partridge, Nashville	100	100	100	100	Herman, Brooklyn	100	100	100	100
HOME RUNS.					HOME RUNS.
Flashkammer, Memphis	100	100	100	100	Klein, Philadelphia	100	100	100	100
Mathews, Little Rock	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100
DOUBLE PLAYS.					DOUBLE PLAYS.
Chattanooga	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100
Birmingham	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100

Southern League.					National League.
LEADING HITTERS.					LEADING HITTERS.
Hutchinson, Mem.	G. A. R. H. P.	100	100	100	Fisher, St. L.	G. A. R. H. P.	100	100	100
Bolton, Chatt.	100	100	100	100	Rose, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Poole, Nash	100	100	100	100	Klein, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Rosenblatt, Atl.	100	100	100	100	Herman, Brooklyn	100	100	100	100
Bancroft, Birm.	100	100	100	100	St. Louis	100	100	100	100
PITCHERS.					PITCHERS.
Shepherd, Mem.	G. W. L. IP. O. R. P.	100	100	100	O'Brien, Phil.	G. W. L. IP. O. R. P.	100	100	100
Bayne, Chatt.	100	100	100	100	Collins, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Kline, Mem.	100	100	100	100	Brann, Phil.	100	100	100	100
Weller, Mem.	100	100	100	100	St. Louis	100	100	100	100
STOLEN BASES.					STOLEN BASES.
Poole, Nashville	100	100	100	100	Currier, Chicago	100	100	100	100
Partridge, Nashville	100	100	100	100	Herman, Brooklyn	100	100	100	100
HOME RUNS.					HOME RUNS.
Flashkammer, Memphis	100	100	100	100	Klein, Philadelphia	100	100	100	100
Mathews, Little Rock	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100
DOUBLE PLAYS.					DOUBLE PLAYS.
Chattanooga	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100
Birmingham	100	100	100	100	Brown, Chicago	100	100	100	100

WELCOME HOME BOBBY JONES

Colonial Bread

the leader in bakery quality Congratulates
BOBBY JONES
the leader in GOLF

WELCOME HOME! and Heartiest Congratulations to
"The Champion of Champions"

Bobby Jones

Famous athletes recognize the importance of a nourishing diet. COLONIAL BREAD is uniformly good and one of the most nourishing foods you can eat.

Your Grocer has COLONIAL BREAD
Be sure to specify COLONIAL . . .
LEE BAKING COMPANY
A. B. LEE, President 211 Moreland Avenue

WALTER POWELL, Gen. Agent
HEALEY BLDG. WA. 9436

A-GROWIN'---ANOTHER MILLER SERVICE

W. PEACHTREE ST. AND NORTH AVE.
For the Down-Town Folks
Call Hemlock 3-5000
Why Not Buy from Home Folks?

MIDSUMMER CHAMBRAY

By Manhattan
a lightweight chambray that is an achievement in shirt-making—so well it is sized and tailored. In cool, woven solid colors—a series of them:
$2.50

Trade Depression Taxing 'New Era' Business Heads

NEW YORK, July 13.—In the "new era" period in this country, the end of which began when the stock market panic started last October, those who stuck to old-fashioned ideas of business, finance, and stock market operations, and economics, were considered just plain dumb, or worse. To the comparatively few who traveled that road it seemed that the long, lonesome lane never would have a turn.

When the sharp turn did suddenly come in October of last year it was those of the "new era" school, not the old-fashioned people, who lost their seats, among other things.

One of the things that appears to have been lost by "new era" managers of banks and corporations is earning power per share of outstanding stock. When those of the "new era" school were attending night as well as day classes, the proper thing to do was to let it go and get a stock split-up or a stock dividend was ahead. For a time automobile companies were the fastest steps in that direction. Rumors of a coming stock split-up or a stock dividend was made good. Shares of automobile companies were stock market leaders, steadily attracting a following that brought about advertising of success which in turn increased sales of cars, making possible more stock splits-up and stock dividends. Oil companies, industrial corporations, public utilities, banks, followed.

Now we are seeing the other side of the picture with managers of old-fashioned companies again regretting and admiring. Up until last October those belonging to the "new era" school were in the saddle; but it is now becoming plain that it was not the October saddle which was not on the right horse.

Glowing Example. A case in point is found in the earnings made last week by the old Fifth Avenue Bank for the first half of 1930 ending with June. During the "new era" period this bank was sometimes called "The Old Lady of the Avenue."

But today "The Old Lady of the Avenue" reports for the first six months of 1930, $62,852 a share on its outstanding common stock, as compared with $117.50 a share for the first half of last year. Like all other banks, the Fifth Avenue has felt the slowing down in general trade. But the point is that "The Old Lady of the Avenue" earned $62,852 a share for its outstanding common stock during the first half of this year while some of the "new era" banks are reporting $2 a share or less.

Some of the "new era" banks have 5,000,000 or more outstanding shares of stock. The Fifth Avenue has only 5,000 shares.

It does not follow that a bank with only 5,000 shares of stock is a success from the viewpoint of its shareholders and depositors, while one with 5,000,000 or more is not. A bank with 5,000,000 or more shares of stock is a success from the viewpoint of its shareholders and depositors and keep on growing while one with only 5,000 shares might be heading for dry rot.

Nevertheless it is becoming increasingly apparent that the rapid expansion in recent years in the outstanding stock of many corporations was part of the speculative thought of the "new era" period; that in some cases mistakes have been made which before the upturn comes in earnings will be corrected.

It is no secret in usually well-informed Wall Street circles that officials of the collapse that occurred in stock prices. Bankers here and elsewhere throughout the country and their followers bought bank stocks at fancy prices believing that earnings per share even on increased outstanding stock would go on increasing. While pessimism throughout the country at the beginning of the third quarter of 1930 is far greater than at the beginning of the first or second quarter, it is not difficult to find on Wall Street successful men of affairs who are confident that while the general trade situation at the beginning of the last half of the year is anything but satisfactory, pessimism is far from actual trade conditions and outlook. In such quarters the feeling is that whatever happens in the immediate future in the stock market and general trade, good stocks will in time work higher. In taking this viewpoint, however, it is being pointed out by leading Wall Street men in private talks with friends that great care must be shown in selecting good stocks; that before Wall Street again witnesses a sustained stock market some companies are going to be shown to be successful in satisfactory earnings showing on existing outstanding stock.

It would not be surprising if some companies joining the movement in recent years to split up stock or to declare stock dividends arrive at the conclusion before the next sustained stock market is under way to reduce outstanding capital stock. It would not be the first time that such action has been taken. During the war and postwar inflation period General Motors, for example, increased its common stock until the authorized amount stood at 20,000,000 shares. During the postwar deflation period General Motors, which had been a stock market leader in the early war period, stood still for months at a time. For a couple of years the price range was within only a few points. The management of the company, however, admitted the amount of outstanding stock was unwise. The stock was reduced to 5,000,000 shares. In the unexpected downturn in the stock market in October, however, General Motors increased its outstanding common stock to 43,500,000 shares.

N. Y. Tea Concern Has Sales Increase in June

NEW YORK, July 13.—An increase of 8.12 per cent in dollar sales for the four weeks of June, 1930, over the same period last year, was shown by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company. Actual sales for the 1930 four weeks period were $82,852,433 as compared with $76,653,136 for 1929, or a dollar sales increase of $6,199,297.

Tonnage figures for the same period showed an increase of 15.23 per cent over the 1929 period, indicative of a continued trend in prices, according to officials.

These June sales brought the total for the first six months of this year to $490,734, as compared with a total of $506,837,572 for the same period in 1929. The average weekly tonnage figures for the 1930 period total 101,771 as compared with 88,292 in 1929, or a weekly average increase of 13.44 per cent.

The average weekly tonnage figures for the 1930 period total 101,771 as compared with 88,292 in 1929, or a weekly average increase of 13.44 per cent.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

A good deal is being said about the possibility of low prices for cotton in the fall but, as no one can determine the size of the crop in early July, one man's guess is as good as another's. At least we can make the statement with perfect truth that the price at which 3 1/2 inch wide 64-60 print cloths sold at the last week in June, namely, 5 cents, the average weekly price for the last week in June, before the time that the price of 5 3/8 cents would show a loss to any mill on 12-cent cotton.

A price of 12 1/2 cents is just below the 22-cent price of July-August delivery, and this we consider an encouraging sign, believing that it will give confidence to the trader in a movement of these goods which has been lacking for several months.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Prices on print cloths are very steady at the advance, though the market remains rather quiet. The price of 3 1/2 inch wide cloth is 12 1/2 cents, and 4 1/2 inch wide cloth is 13 1/2 cents.

Summer Business Dullness Prevails During Past Week

Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Business has trailed through another dull summer week, with some degree of sluggishness from the Independence Day week-end, and with continued uncertainty as to how much its dollar will buy.

The steel industry showed rather more than expected quickening after the shut-down of the previous week, but renewed declines in commodity prices was a counterbalancing restraint in business generally.

Steel mill operations were estimated by Iron Age at 56 per cent of rated capacity, against 60 per cent 10 days previously. The report of June ingot production showed little change from the previous week, but the decline started from the unusually sharp downturn in April.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

The further shrinking of commodity values was less inclusive than during some weeks in June, but it embraced such commodities as wheat, cotton, rubber, and rubber raw materials.

Don't Make Mistakes in Cotton

Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—After creeping along since money rates reached pre-war levels, the pace of bonds has quickened under the impulse of institutional buying, and last week the market made the best showing since spring.

In financial circles, which have been disappointed by the feeble response to easy credit, the broadened activity of bonds and higher prices were regarded by the sanguine as marking a turn in the road. Not since the short-lived March rally has there been a definite upturn taken place throughout the entire list of issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

New life was fused into the best grade corporate bonds of all classes, with railroad mortgage bonds on the increase. The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

Don't Make Mistakes in Cotton

Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—After creeping along since money rates reached pre-war levels, the pace of bonds has quickened under the impulse of institutional buying, and last week the market made the best showing since spring.

In financial circles, which have been disappointed by the feeble response to easy credit, the broadened activity of bonds and higher prices were regarded by the sanguine as marking a turn in the road. Not since the short-lived March rally has there been a definite upturn taken place throughout the entire list of issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

New life was fused into the best grade corporate bonds of all classes, with railroad mortgage bonds on the increase. The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

Don't Make Mistakes in Cotton

Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—After creeping along since money rates reached pre-war levels, the pace of bonds has quickened under the impulse of institutional buying, and last week the market made the best showing since spring.

In financial circles, which have been disappointed by the feeble response to easy credit, the broadened activity of bonds and higher prices were regarded by the sanguine as marking a turn in the road. Not since the short-lived March rally has there been a definite upturn taken place throughout the entire list of issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

New life was fused into the best grade corporate bonds of all classes, with railroad mortgage bonds on the increase. The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

The average shows that utility bonds climbed in the New York Stock Exchange, while railroad mortgage bonds showed a decline.

Don't Make Mistakes in Cotton

Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—After creeping along since money rates reached pre-war levels, the pace of bonds has quickened under the impulse of institutional buying, and last week the market made the best showing since spring.

In financial circles, which have been disappointed by the feeble response to easy credit, the broadened activity of bonds and higher prices were regarded by the sanguine as marking a turn in the road. Not since the short-lived March rally has there been a definite upturn taken place throughout the entire list of issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

New life was fused into the best grade corporate bonds of all classes, with railroad mortgage bonds

CAPONE DETERMINED TO KEEP MIAMI HOME

Attorneys Say Gang Chief Won't Be Run Out While Law-Abiding.

MIAMI, Fla., July 13.—(P)—Scarface Al Capone spent today fishing and deciding that he will throw down the gauntlet to official Miami and Dade county, sponsors of a three months' campaign to drive him from the community.

The Chicago racketeer decided, according to his attorney, J. F. Gordon, that he will continue to maintain his $250,000 residence on Palm island, Miami Beach, despite the effort to oust him. His plans to leave for Chicago as soon as possible are unchanged, the attorney said.

"He wants to get some rest from the fight he has had to put up with the last three months to defend his home and his constitutional right to live anywhere he chooses," Gordon said, "but he will refuse to let the city of Miami or Dade county run him out as long as he obeys laws within the area."

Capone was acquitted yesterday on one of three charges of perjury, brought against him as a part of the official campaign to oust him. The acquittal was directed by Criminal Court Judge I. C. Collins, who held that the state had not proved the Chicago gangster guilty of perjury. The order was followed by cheers and applause by the crowd that had jammed the courtroom during the three days of the trial.

"Capone has every right in the world to live in Miami if he chooses," Gordon elaborated. "He owns a home that is a credit to Miami or Miami Beach, and he has conducted and will continue to conduct himself here with the greatest propriety."

"He is tired from the struggle to prevent imposition by officials of Miami and Dade county," the attorney continued, "and he will go to Chicago to get the rest that he thought he would get when he came to his home here, April 20."

Questioned as to the present shape of Capone's plans to go into business here, and to erect a country estate at Boca Raton, north of here, the attorney today was reticent.

"Capone will have no plans to announce until after the perjury charges are cleared up," he said. "Some time ago he tentatively considered leasing a Flagler street restaurant, and even later he had under consideration a plan to build a country estate near Boca Raton. There is nothing to announce on either of these projects. The only thing he is sure of now is that he is going to Chicago shortly, and that he will make his other plans then."

Capone was still under bond of $30,000 as he fished in Biscayne bay from his motor launch today. The bond originally was $15,000 for the perjury cases, but disposition of yesterday's case in his favor lessened the total amount by $15,000.

His attorneys, Gordon and Vincent C. Giblin, probably will attempt to have the remaining cases set for trial immediately or quashed by County Solicitor George McCaskill, Gordon said.

"We are ready to go to trial at once," he continued. "We have a better defense prepared for the remaining cases than we had for the one that was decided yesterday."

Solicitor McCaskill could not be reached today for information as to his plans on the remaining cases. Officials said the state may decide to drop the other cases, since a conviction could not be obtained on the first. Even if the state should decide to continue with the trials as a part of the program against Capone, it was not seen as probable tonight that any action will be taken this week.

McCaskill plans to open this week a county investigation into affairs surrounding the closing on June 11 of the Bank of Biscayne and three subsidiaries. It was learned, and this probably will take considerable time.

Both Smiths are scheduled to get a hearing at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in police court.

Police Sunday night formally booked P. B. Smith, 31, of 539 Pryor street, and R. Y. Smith, 29, of 190 Palm street, on charges of robbery as a result of a two-day investigation in connection with the holdup a week ago today of the Peters building offices of Chesnut & Johnson when that firm's safe was rifled of $850.

Lieutenant Detective T. O. Sturdivant, who has directed the investigation, stated Sunday night that he had three witnesses who would testify that P. B. Smith was the "stick-up" man who held R. C. Chesnut, son of the senior member of the firm, at bay with a gun while he took the money. Sturdivant would not go into details, but intimated that the other Smith was being held on a robbery charge as an accomplice.

Two women who were arrested with the man Saturday were released Sunday. Sturdivant said that he had located $840 of the stolen money and would be able to have it returned to the owners.

Both Smiths are scheduled to get a hearing at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in police court.

Final rites for Mrs. Martha Ann Reynolds will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Raymond Gaddy will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Hettie D. Rice will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

M. De Vore will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, eastern time, from the Alpha Delta Baptist church, with the Rev. R. M. Donohue, the Rev. L. B. Craft and the Rev. D. A. Phillips officiating. Interment will be in Alpharetta cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

200 Skeletons Found In Seminary Dungeon

CUENCA, Spain, July 13.—(P)—About 200 skeletons, supposedly those of persons put to death in the 16th century, were viewed today by thousands who visited a dungeon in the underground chambers of the old Santa Clara seminary where the bones were discovered yesterday.

Officials said the position of some of the skeletons indicated the victims had died in terrible agony. Some of the bodies were mummified. Hopes had been that about 100 skeletons of several. One mummy, apparently that of a woman, was fastened with ropes to a projecting rock. Evidently the victims were thrust into the dungeon through a hatch hole at the top. The dungeon was about 14 by 15 feet in size. A mirror, which distorted the appearance of the sufferers, was found inside. The authorities, considering the discovery of great historical significance, began cooperating in the investigation of the dungeon which was discovered during repairs on the old seminary. Centuries ago young men studied for the priesthood there.

Public opinion blames, to some extent, the earthquakes for a mysterious epidemic resembling cholera which has broken out here. Forty-five persons have died of it within a few days. The disease continues to spread. One theory of physicians is that the earthquakes, disturbing the earth's surface, uncovered dormant germs to which the people were then exposed. Many buildings were damaged here, including the government buildings, schools and shops. Many houses were cracked throughout the country.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

TWO MEN ARE CHARGED WITH CHESNUT HOLDUP

P. B. and R. Y. Smith Accused of $850 Robbery; $340 Recovered.

Police Sunday night formally booked P. B. Smith, 31, of 539 Pryor street, and R. Y. Smith, 29, of 190 Palm street, on charges of robbery as a result of a two-day investigation in connection with the holdup a week ago today of the Peters building offices of Chesnut & Johnson when that firm's safe was rifled of $850.

Lieutenant Detective T. O. Sturdivant, who has directed the investigation, stated Sunday night that he had three witnesses who would testify that P. B. Smith was the "stick-up" man who held R. C. Chesnut, son of the senior member of the firm, at bay with a gun while he took the money. Sturdivant would not go into details, but intimated that the other Smith was being held on a robbery charge as an accomplice.

Two women who were arrested with the man Saturday were released Sunday. Sturdivant said that he had located $840 of the stolen money and would be able to have it returned to the owners.

Both Smiths are scheduled to get a hearing at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in police court.

Final rites for Mrs. Martha Ann Reynolds will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Raymond Gaddy will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Hettie D. Rice will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

M. De Vore will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, eastern time, from the Alpha Delta Baptist church, with the Rev. R. M. Donohue, the Rev. L. B. Craft and the Rev. D. A. Phillips officiating. Interment will be in Alpharetta cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

College Park Youth Is Injured in Fight

Roy Reese, 22, of College Park, was admitted to Grady hospital about midnight Sunday suffering from a fractured skull said to have been received when he was struck by a rock during an altercation with another College Park youth. The state at the hospital that the affair occurred on the main highway a few miles from Fairburn and that he was fighting with Hubert Chaney. Physicians stated that the condition of Reese was not serious.

Police Sunday night formally booked P. B. Smith, 31, of 539 Pryor street, and R. Y. Smith, 29, of 190 Palm street, on charges of robbery as a result of a two-day investigation in connection with the holdup a week ago today of the Peters building offices of Chesnut & Johnson when that firm's safe was rifled of $850.

Lieutenant Detective T. O. Sturdivant, who has directed the investigation, stated Sunday night that he had three witnesses who would testify that P. B. Smith was the "stick-up" man who held R. C. Chesnut, son of the senior member of the firm, at bay with a gun while he took the money. Sturdivant would not go into details, but intimated that the other Smith was being held on a robbery charge as an accomplice.

Two women who were arrested with the man Saturday were released Sunday. Sturdivant said that he had located $840 of the stolen money and would be able to have it returned to the owners.

Both Smiths are scheduled to get a hearing at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in police court.

Final rites for Mrs. Martha Ann Reynolds will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Raymond Gaddy will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Hettie D. Rice will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

M. De Vore will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, eastern time, from the Alpha Delta Baptist church, with the Rev. R. M. Donohue, the Rev. L. B. Craft and the Rev. D. A. Phillips officiating. Interment will be in Alpharetta cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

College Park Youth Is Injured in Fight

Roy Reese, 22, of College Park, was admitted to Grady hospital about midnight Sunday suffering from a fractured skull said to have been received when he was struck by a rock during an altercation with another College Park youth. The state at the hospital that the affair occurred on the main highway a few miles from Fairburn and that he was fighting with Hubert Chaney. Physicians stated that the condition of Reese was not serious.

Police Sunday night formally booked P. B. Smith, 31, of 539 Pryor street, and R. Y. Smith, 29, of 190 Palm street, on charges of robbery as a result of a two-day investigation in connection with the holdup a week ago today of the Peters building offices of Chesnut & Johnson when that firm's safe was rifled of $850.

Lieutenant Detective T. O. Sturdivant, who has directed the investigation, stated Sunday night that he had three witnesses who would testify that P. B. Smith was the "stick-up" man who held R. C. Chesnut, son of the senior member of the firm, at bay with a gun while he took the money. Sturdivant would not go into details, but intimated that the other Smith was being held on a robbery charge as an accomplice.

Two women who were arrested with the man Saturday were released Sunday. Sturdivant said that he had located $840 of the stolen money and would be able to have it returned to the owners.

Both Smiths are scheduled to get a hearing at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in police court.

Final rites for Mrs. Martha Ann Reynolds will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Raymond Gaddy will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Hettie D. Rice will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church of Powder Springs, with the Rev. D. D. Bradley officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

M. De Vore will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, eastern time, from the Alpha Delta Baptist church, with the Rev. R. M. Donohue, the Rev. L. B. Craft and the Rev. D. A. Phillips officiating. Interment will be in Alpharetta cemetery.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.

Final rites for Mrs. Lella Drake will be conducted at 3 o'clock this morning from the residence in Roswell, with the Rev. J. W. Stephens officiating. Interment will be in Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Dolly Garner will be conducted at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 700 Dunlap street, East Point. She is survived by two sons, Colie and Ira Garner, and two grandchildren, Harry and Howard L. Carmichael.